With firm conviction, we set our goals always to improve and advance ourselves.

"Looking up and not down.
Looking forward and not back.
Looking out, not in.
Lending a hand."

Edward Everett Hale

Along with the spirit of progress and advancement, we have pride in Mayfield's past accomplishments. Thus we strive to uphold these ideals: honoring outstanding students for their individual achievements; spending sleepless hours for the completion of a harvest dance, float, or march routine; cycling around the parking lot.

If you want a revolution, you know that you can count me out.

Understanding procedures, not only listening but absorbing.

Feeling fulfilled in the knowledge that you have tried your best.

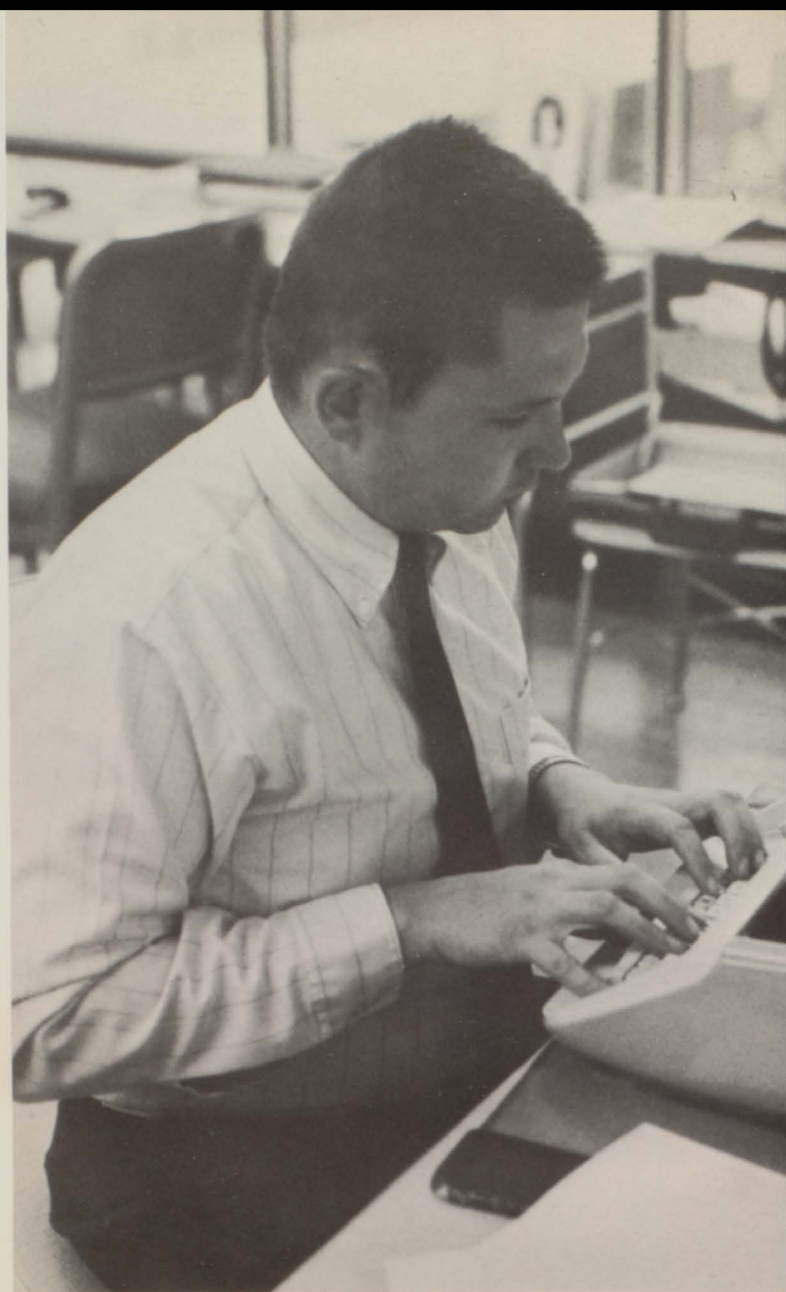

Relaying a message through writing or speech, feeling better for having gone to class.

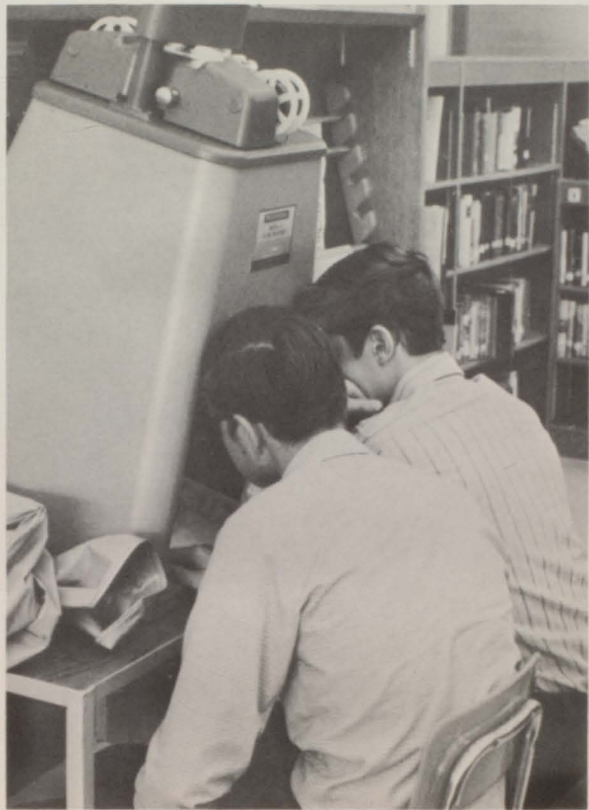

Struggling to solve the math problem, reading all night to finish the English book, making the most of study halls, cramming at lunch for the big test.

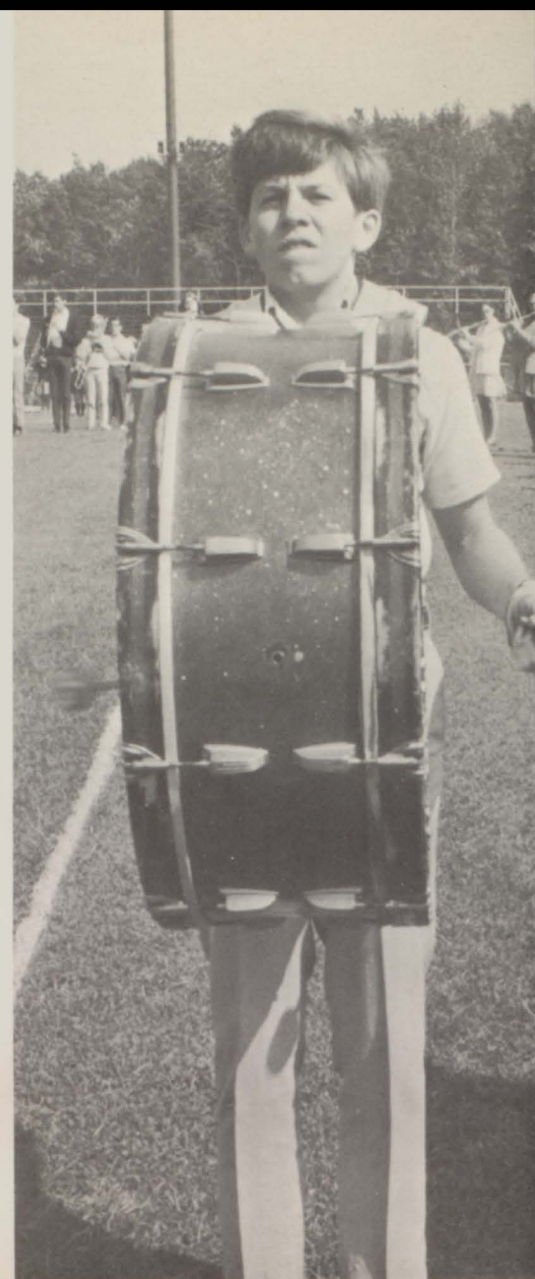

Understanding and comprehending not only ideas, but also the teacher as well.

Planning homework around social activities.

Mayfield's faculty teaches us always to come to class prepared!

Working behind the scenes to create a great play.

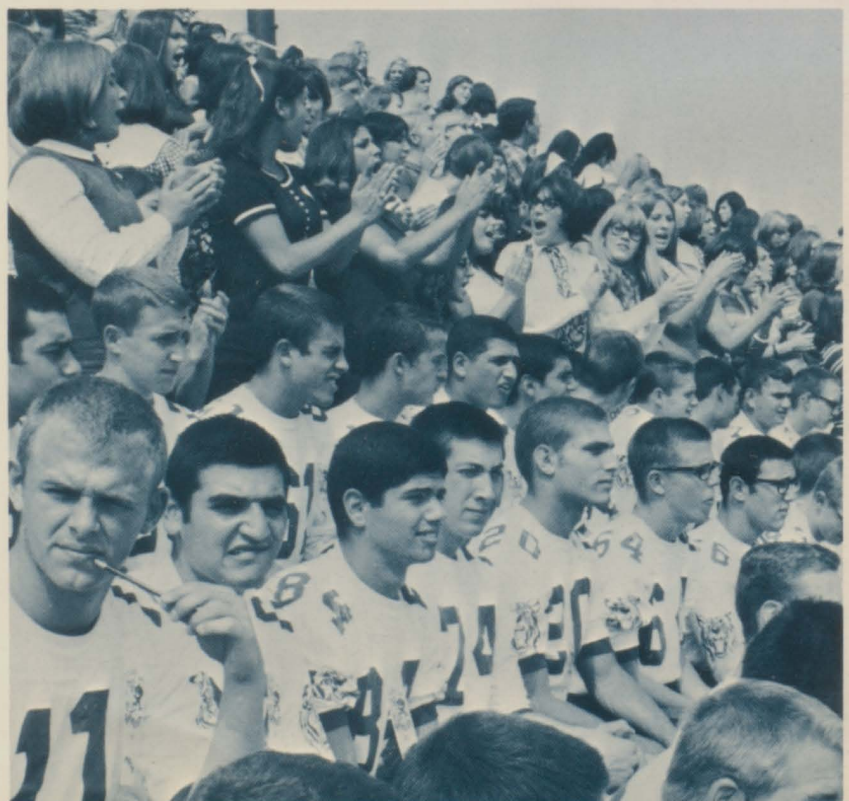

Practicing extra hours to produce a winning team.

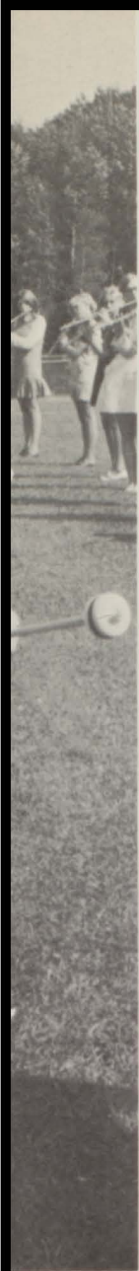

Hanging posters to ignite school spirit.

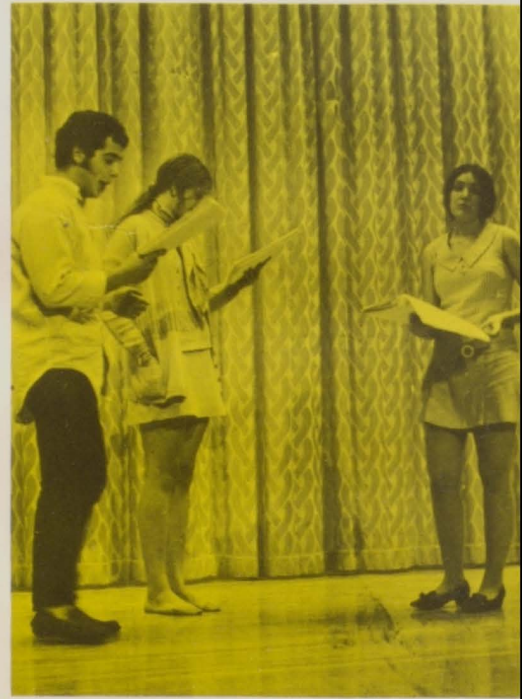

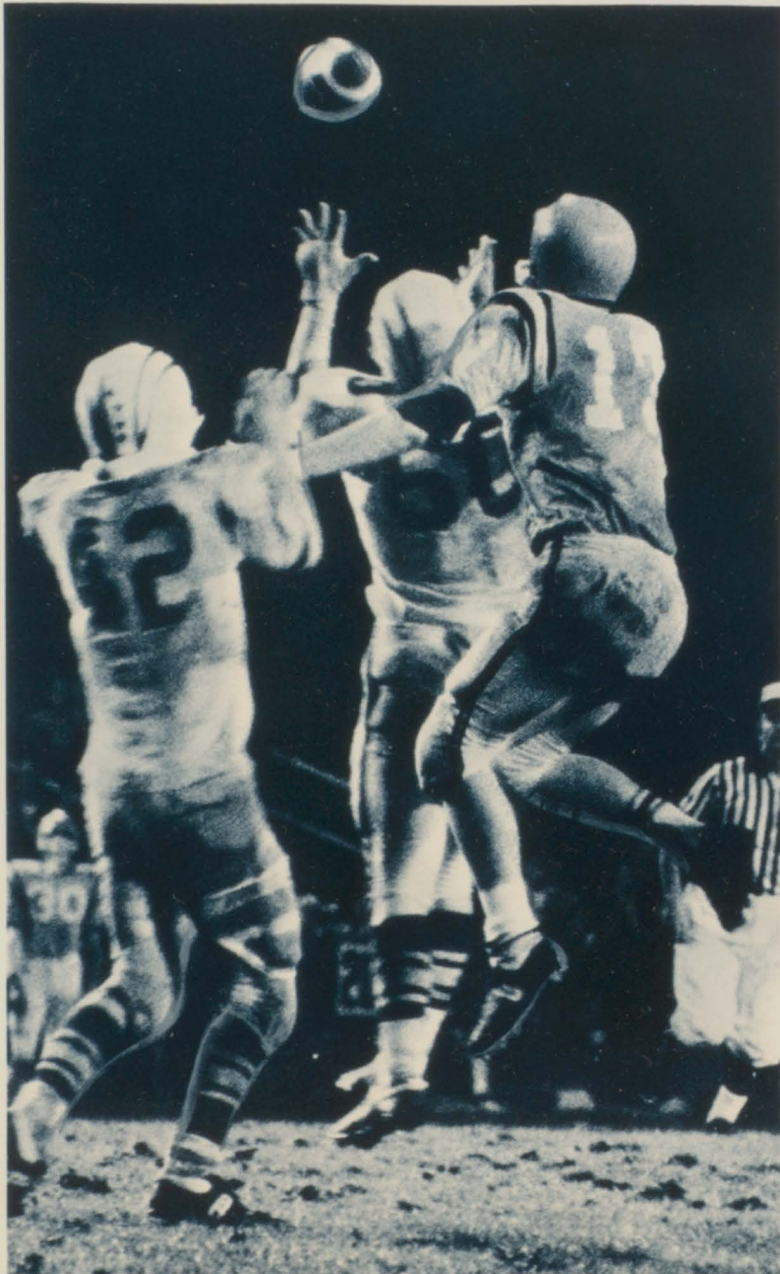

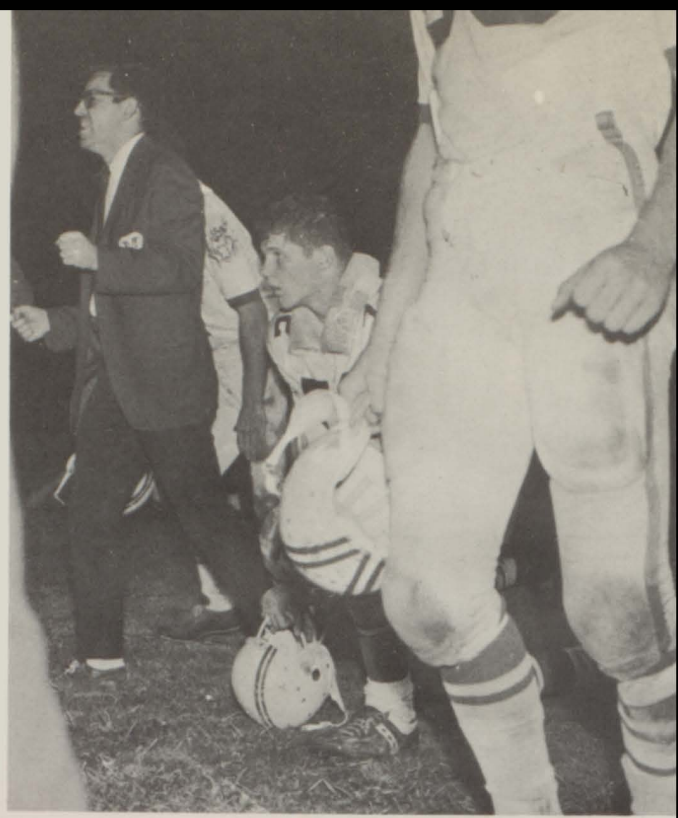

Cheering loudest to express Mayfield Pride.

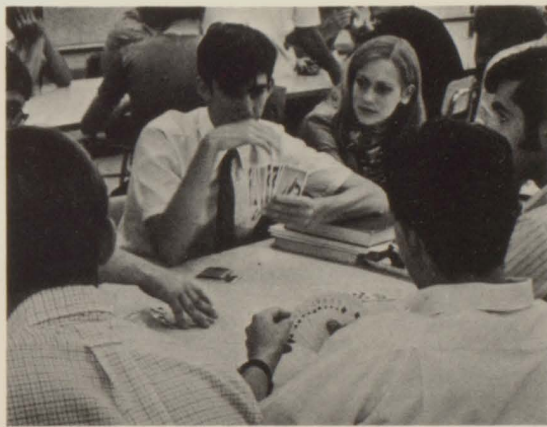

United to react to challenge, to drive the hardest.

These are the ones who deserve the highest recognition.

Why do we constantly drive to beat the team? Practice to break the record?

To get the part?

Make the squad?

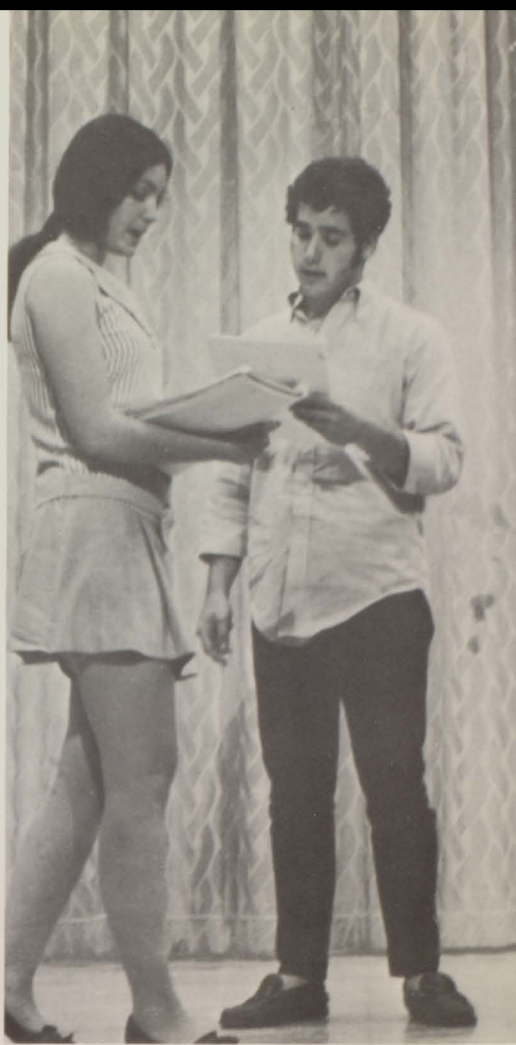

Pass the test?

Win the game?

'Cause we're NUMBER ONE!

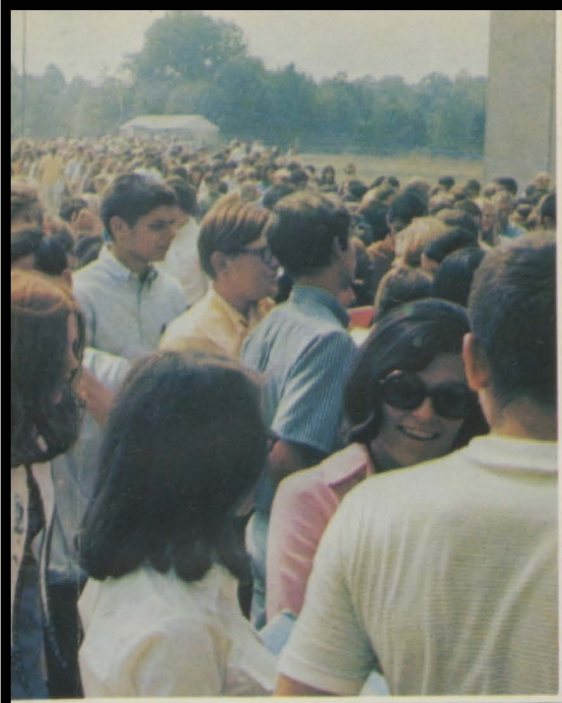

At Mayfield we learn that TEAM effort gets the job done.
Compromising with Administration and Faculty.
Devising a Communal Homework System where, "You do the first half, and I'll do the rest."
Making a team out of individuals.
C'mon, people, now--Everybody get together.

A deserted building, an empty hall.

A game without cheering,
learning without teaching.

A community cannot live without spirited, interested, INVOLVED participants.

MAYFIELD IS PEOPLE

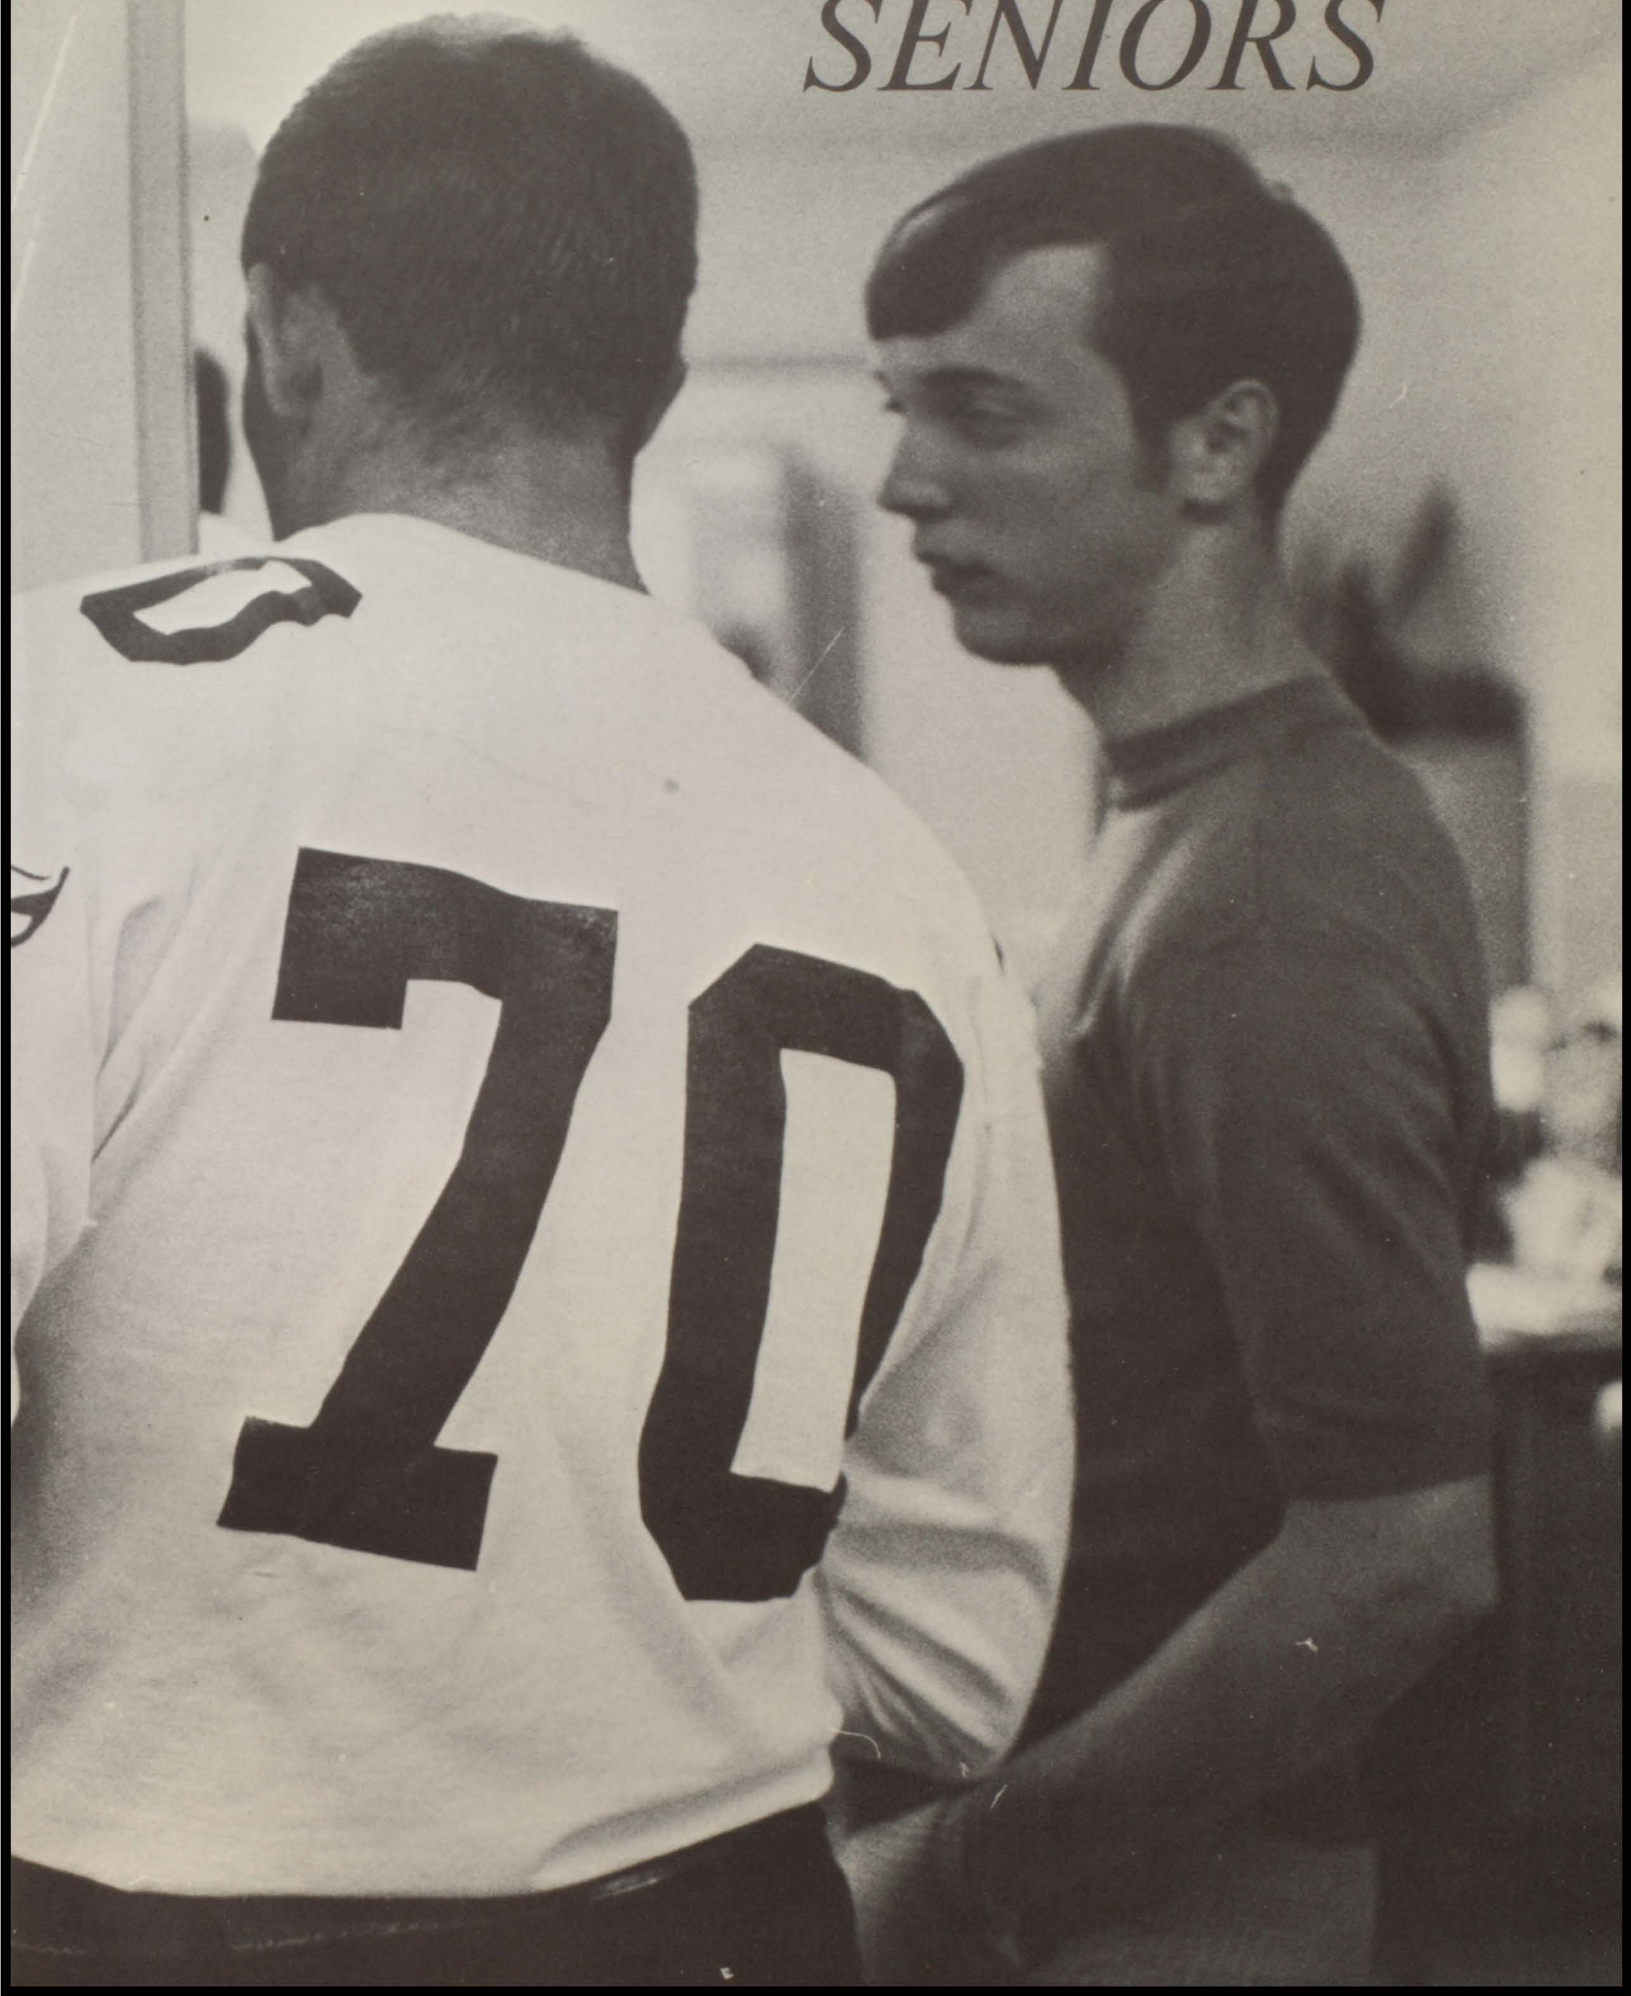

To you, Mr. Ferris, we dedicate this 1970 MAYFIELDER. We laud you as an inspiring coach and athletics director, as a knowledgeable teacher of World History and geography, and as "Big Ed," for making Mayfield classrooms fill with spirit and laughter.

Our A.F.S.'er

Thousand miles away from home
Never makes me feel that far away
America is my new country
But I feel as though it is my own.

I always dreamed of having the chance to travel, no matter what country, but my first choice was America. Why? It is ridiculous, for I cannot even answer myself. The main purpose is to see what America is like and how are the people, in order to promote understanding towards world peace.

When I look back, I can hardly believe that I have almost finished my year here in the United States. I still remember my American family, the Krahes, and what a warm welcome I had! My brother held a sign "Welcome Nancy."

From that time on I was called Nancy. I had to get used to my new name, because my Thai name is Nongnoot Anantachote-kul. Everything seems new to me. The first day I got up at 2 P.M., I thought it was still midnight because I thought of Norway, Land of the Midnight Sun. Now, my first day at home I felt like I was a guest, but not after the second day, especially when I got along with my dog, Pinky, pretty well. Three days after my arrival, my family took me to Buffalo, and I had a chance to see Niagra Falls. Then we went to Pittsburgh. By the end of August I joined the Band Camp. I had lots of fun there, like going out skulking at night, which is against the rules, and most of all I got to know some Mayfield kids before school reopened.

Finally, the day which I was looking forward to had come: September 3, the first day of school. I did not feel bad at all because I found that Mayfielders are friendly, especially the Seniors. This warm welcome encouraged me to make friends with many people. Already the first day I remember, I had to say 24 HI's to Mayfielders.

This is my first impression of Mayfield. Even though it (Hi) is a short word, it is full of meaning, understandable and friendly. I know that I began to love Mayfield, and that I will be glad to be graduated from this school. Graduation is coming very soon; because the snow is going away now. Snow is one of my first impressions of America too because I had never seen it before. When I first saw it I was running wildly, like crazy, even tasting it. I think I will never forget my greatest time and experiences here. My time of departure is coming very soon, but I would like to say that I do not want to go yet. I still love Mayfield although I have only been visiting this school. My hobby now is giving speeches. I enjoy it because it is the way I can get to know people.

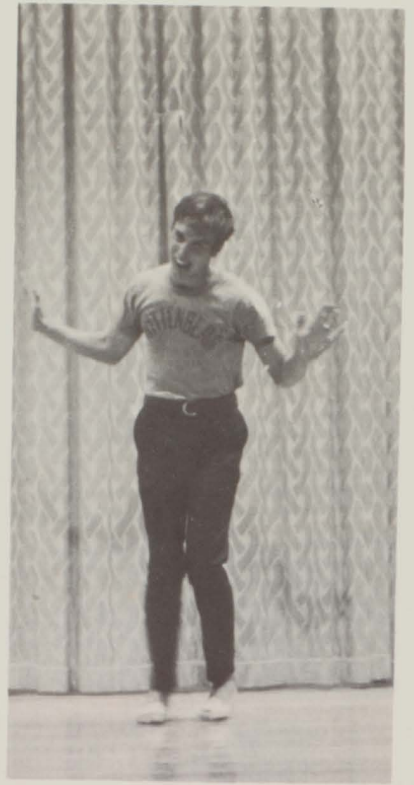

Time to leave is coming soon. I hope one day in Thailand in the future we might see each other again. Welcome to Thailand! Best of luck to you all. What is going on next in the future I cannot foretell, but write me sometime and you will find out. SAWADDIKA.

I'll betcha three master keys and raise ya a stack of hall passes!

Who said people can't fly?

Quick! Bring on the "Cornhuskers!"

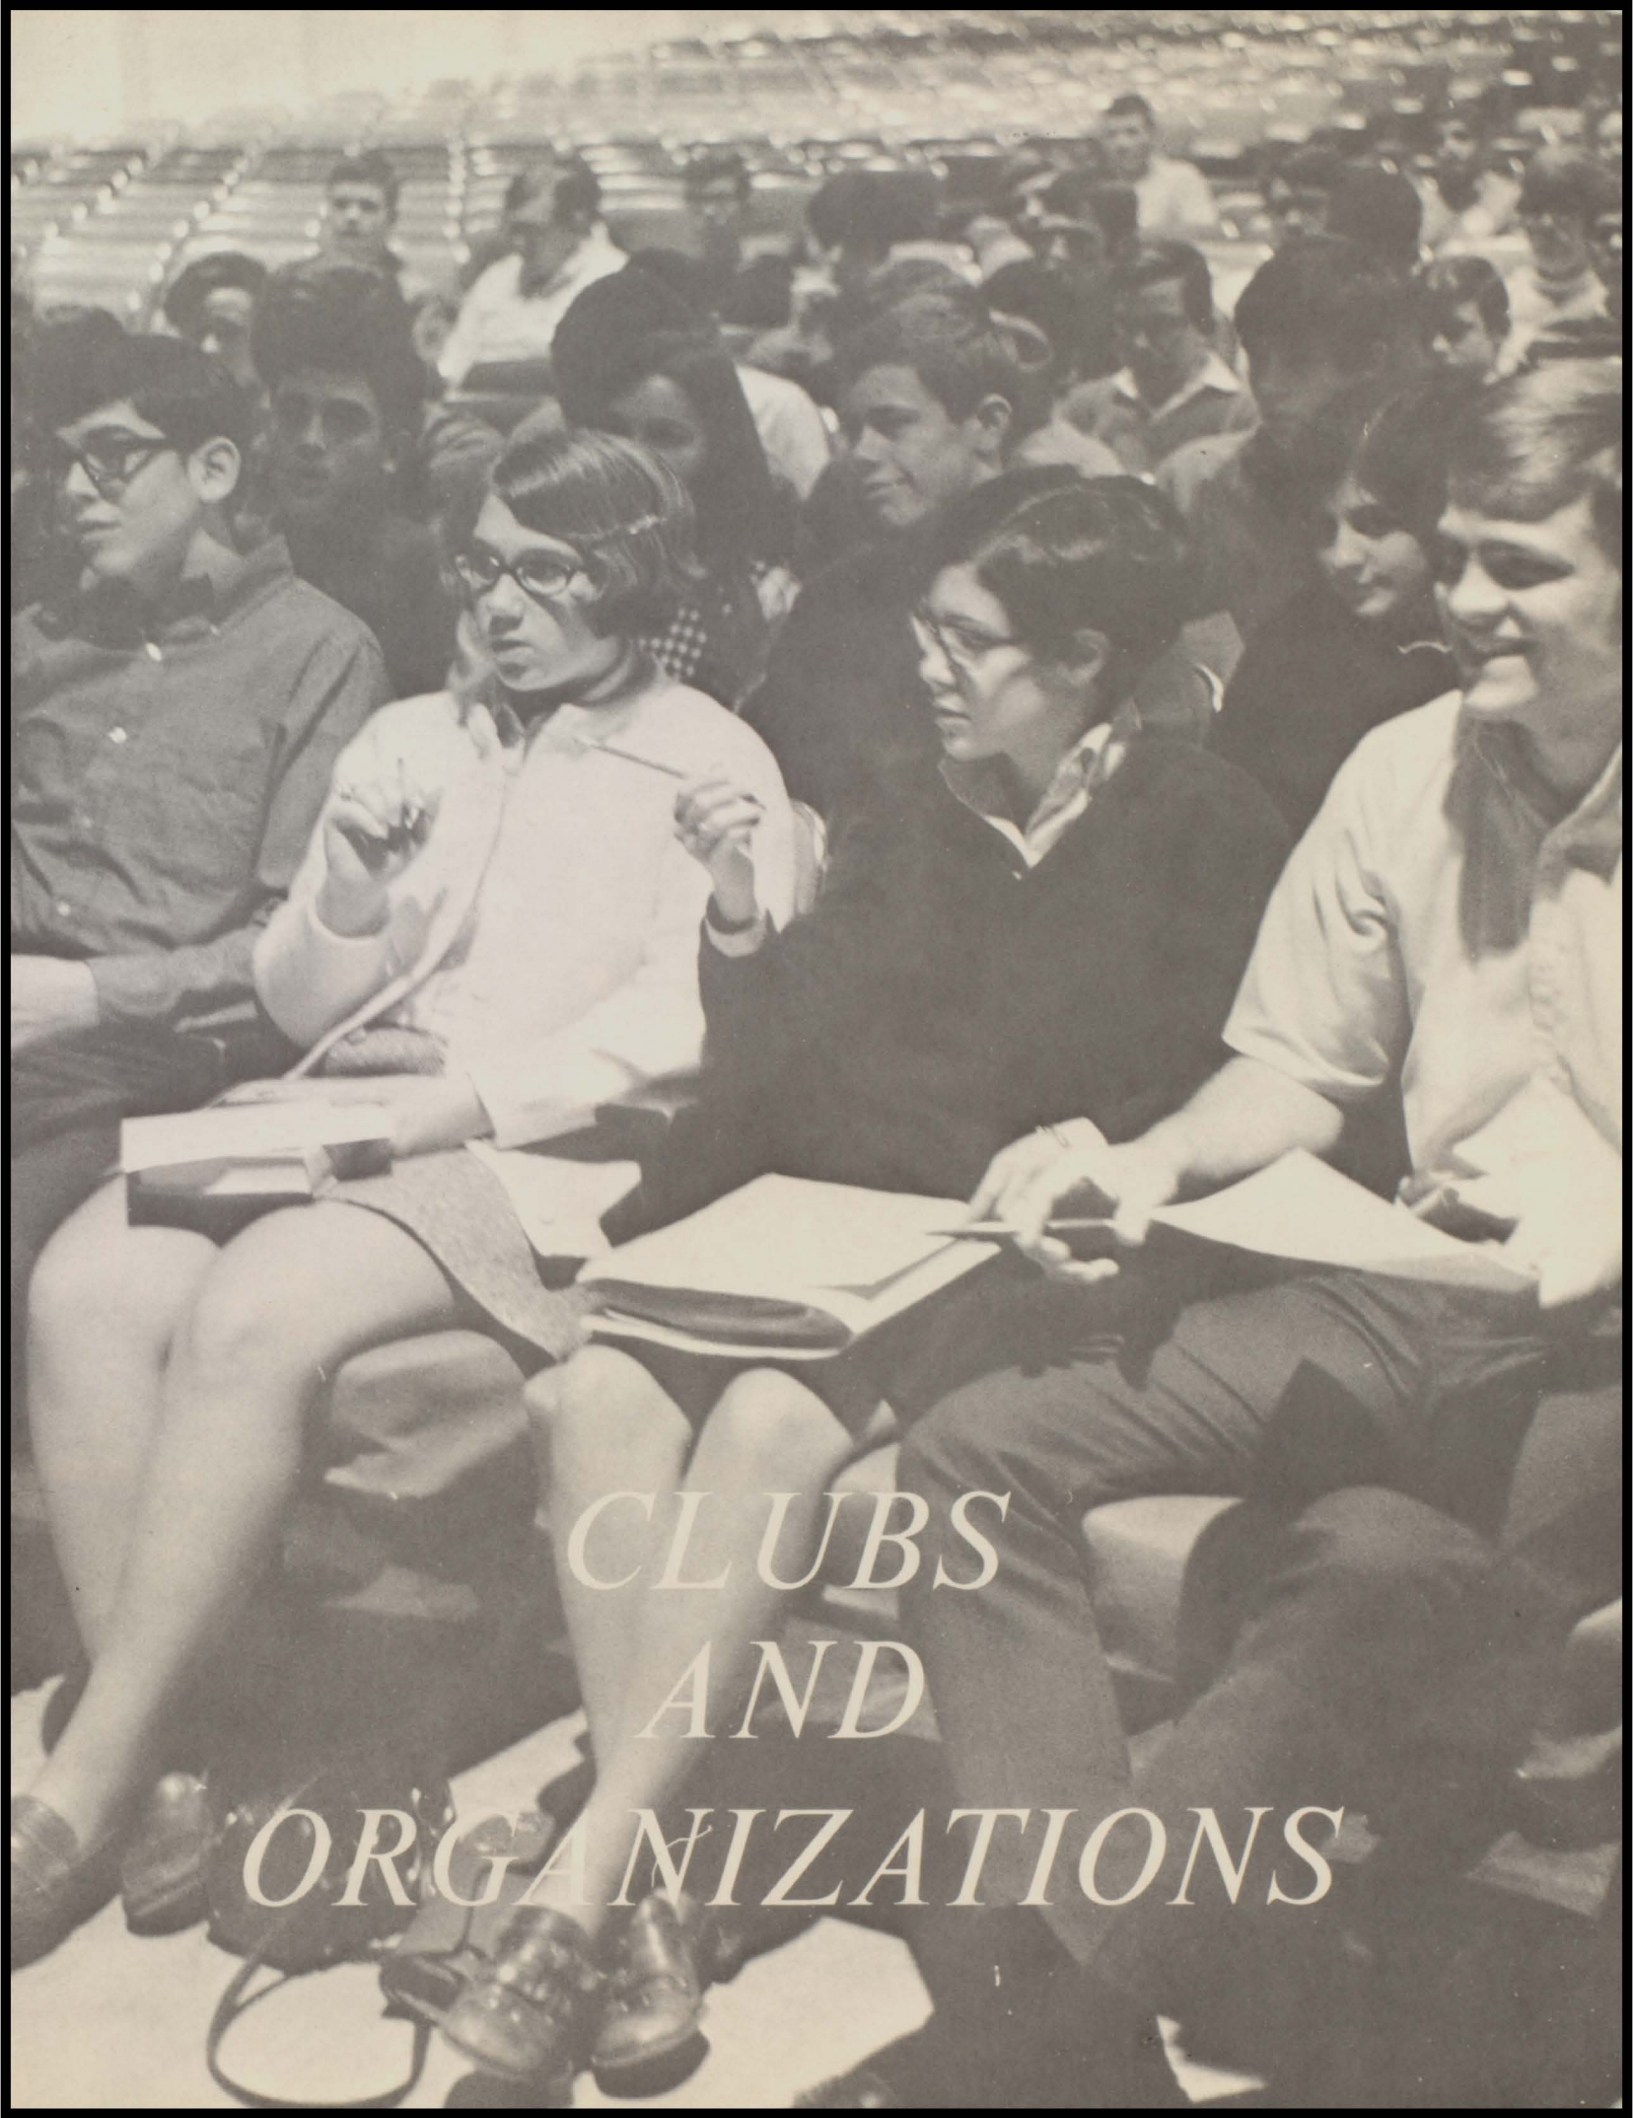

Our Fearless Leaders.

Say, do YOU play football?

Duncan and Lady MacBeth

This is a fine way to start the morning.

Sisters?

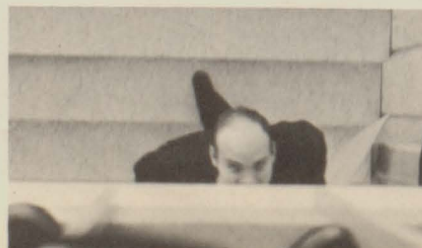

Another exciting oral report.

AR auditions

Remember when there was a door out?

Somebody step on it!

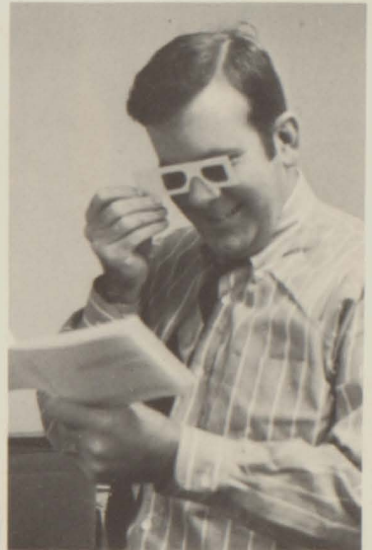

Spanish made FUN!

Bromo seltzer, bromo-seltzer, bromo-seltzer.

Star light, star bright,
please let Mayfield win tonight.

Just hanging around.

I see all you little do-bees down there!

. . .and the library will also be used for quiet study.

Hear no evil, see no evil, speak no evil.

Yes, I have life insurance. Why do you ask?

Symphony in B Sharp.

Make mine a sarsaparilla.

A toast

Speak, amigo!

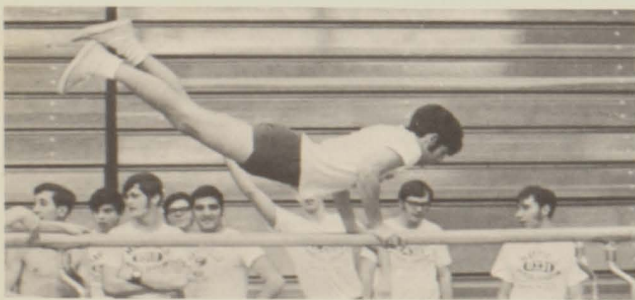

Do you have. . . ?

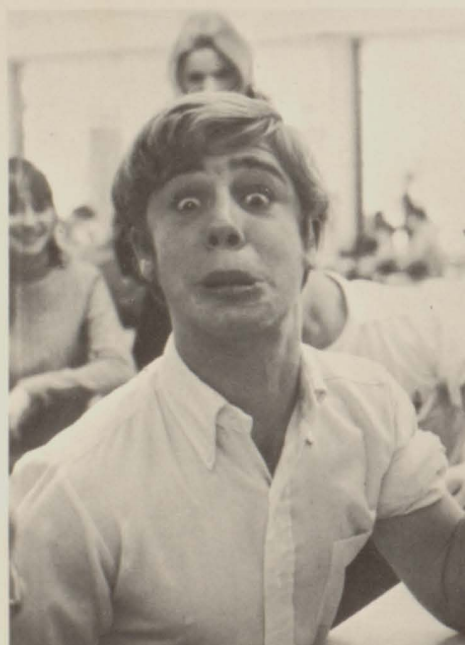

No Thanks.

No caption needed!

I've seen push-ups before, but this is ridiculous!

Who, me?

If the amount of garbage is determined by:

$$f(x) = e^u \frac{du}{dx}$$
