THE FIRST STEP

Our goal is improvement. Whether it be in our school, community, or world, we constantly try to make things better for ourselves and others. But many times, it takes more than just extra practice or effort. It takes change - both in our way of thinking and acting. We may not please everyone, but we must always keep in mind our original goal of improving. We're doing more than just changing. We're setting new directions.

AFTER HOURS — Our Alternatives to the Soaps ...

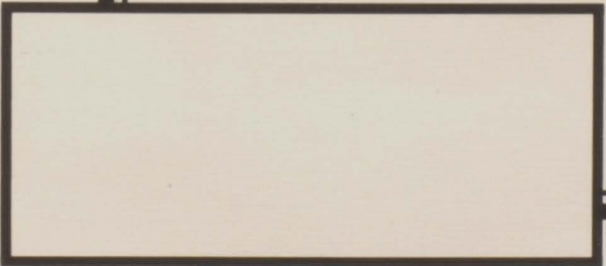

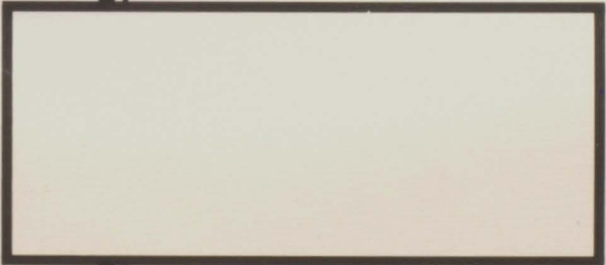

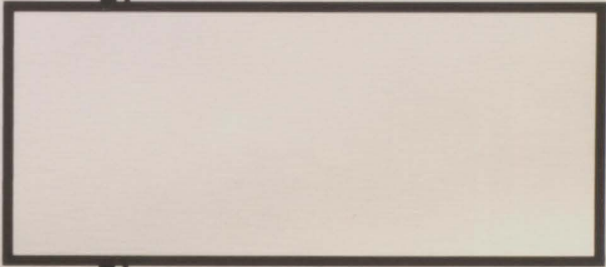

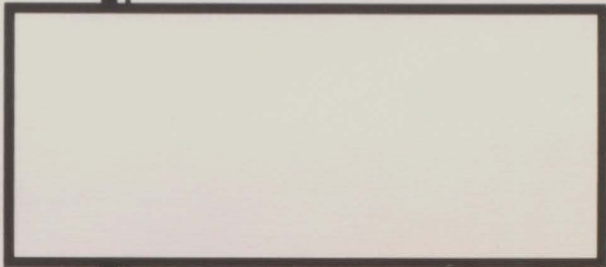

It is 3:30 . . . do you know where your friends and classmates are? They may be in Room 165 with Cats' Cabinet or Student Council planning another dance. If you look out onto the practice field, you might see the marching band coming off the field just in time to avoid being blitzed by our football team. By 6:30, your friends may be involved in play practice in the auditorium or possibly be helping the Key Club open their counter to sell refreshments during one of our basketball games or wrestling matches.

Wherever you find them, they are the people who create the pulse of our school. Their participation and involvement make the "after hours" at Mayfield --- "active hours." How many of your after hours are active hours? (Watching Soaps doesn't count.)

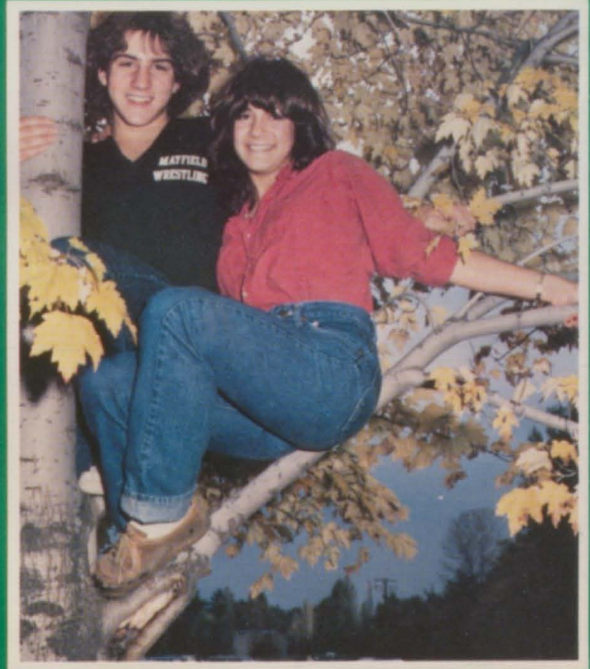

STUDENT LIFE

YOU and ME

At times their shouts may be heard above the crowd as you try for the impossible, or maybe their support comes in approving glances that say, "Go ahead, I'm with you." They are our friends. They have long ago discovered all those things about us that turned others into just acquaintances — and, yet, they accept us anyway. With them we further understand ourselves, and we truly become one soul in two bodies.

SPIRITED WEEK — Involved . . . and Loving It.

Dear Father,

How are you, mother, and my fourteen lovely sisters? I have been here in America one week, and I have tried desperately to adapt; but it is difficult.

On Monday I noticed many students wearing suspenders and over-alls. I want to be American, so on Tuesday I wear suspenders, but boys and girls all came dressed alike. Much excitement was in the air . . . more than when we shear the sheep.

Wednesday and Thursday were not too good also. Both days I not conform, and stand out like tractor in duck pond.

Friday - whole school - students, teachers, and even the building dressed in green and white. I dressed in red. I am failure.

Always,
Your confused comrade

McSPIRIT

The SPIRIT exhibited during games and pep rallies escapes the boundaries of our school and crowds itself into McDonald's.

Win or lose, there is always something we can count on . . . tables packed full of French-fry freaks, hamburger hounds and rowdy friendships. There is no need to decide where to sit, as the most energetic conversations are continually on the move from one spot to another. There are no cliques here . . . just Mayfield students enjoying each other as well as a place where they feel welcome.

P.S. McDonald's management . . . You're the reason we enjoyed doing it, and nobody can do it like you can.

HALLOWEEN — Our School SPIRITS

Werewolves and ghouls and goblins . . . Oh my! Halloween in our school is definitely not just another of "those days." Everytime we turned our heads we were confronted by either Minnie Mouse or a creature from "whatever" lagoon. This tradition may not stand a GHOST of a chance in other high schools, but here at Mayfield we show how participation can be infectious. More students than ever before got out their bags of tricks and treated us to one of the most exciting and interesting days of the year.

Though the make-up and masks may have concealed the true identity of our holiday revelers; it could not camouflage all those giggles and smiles. Next year can be even better — IF YOU JOIN IN THE FUN.

HOMECOMING

Talk about frustrating . . . a girl running for Homecoming Queen cannot find any stiffer competition than here at Mayfield. Queen Stephanie Averill and her court would be envied by any other school.

The time between pep-rally and the game passed quickly, and by the kick-off a rainbow of umbrellas hovered over the court and an eager Wildcat crowd. We were treated to another tough battle, as the fighting Cats searched for the play to put the Rangers away. Unfortunately, we had to settle for a tie.

Saturday night "Teaser" tempted us with a fine performance in honor of our Queen and her court. This was one weekend that no amount of rain could destroy.

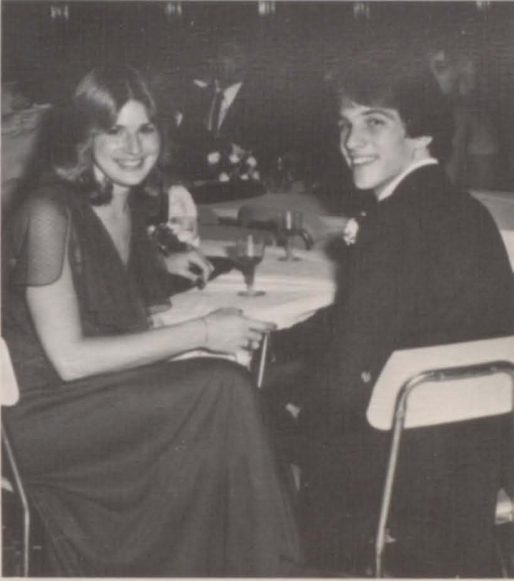

HOMECOMING '80 — Setting Sail Together

By late Friday afternoon, it had already started . . . the transformation. All hands in Student Council were on deck. Within 24 hours, our leaders transformed a drab cafeteria into a sea of colorful, striped spinnakers, swooping seagulls, and swirling lights. By Saturday evening, everything was ship-shape for the arrival of Queen Stephanie Averill and her court of Lynette Alvarez, Paulette Capretta, Margie Kerr, and Therese Sloe. These beautiful young women were ably escorted aboard by Ray Guerrini, Steve Eddy, Dave Vanis, Tracy Davis, and Bob Razzante.

Within a short time, 150 couples had set sail into an evening highlighted by "Teaser," which kept the deck awash with dancers one number after another. The girls in Cotton's Galley kept up a steady stream of punch and treats to tempt the appetites that only would be satisfied later at numerous restaurants. Though the wakes left by their passing ships may soon disappear, the memories shared by all our couples will sail on in time.

VALENTINE'S DANCE — Bubbles Returns

Dear Ex-Valentine, February 15, 1981
 Stop calling me! I thought that after last year's dance you, cupid, and I were inseparable; but now you've gone too far.

The Valentine's Dance was our first and last anniversary. Why couldn't we at least have danced once? (Bunions may have worked as an excuse for Abe Lincoln, but you're no Abe). There was more than enough room on that dance floor last night.

There may have been dozens of "Hearts of Fire" last night, but you doused mine when you knocked my corsage into the punch bowl. (Did you have to fish it out with your shoelace?)

The real clincher was going to McDonald's. Do you expect me to tell my friends we went to the Red Fox Inn, again?

Hatefully yours, Bubbles
 P.S. Enclosed is a handkerchief. That habit of yours is disgusting.

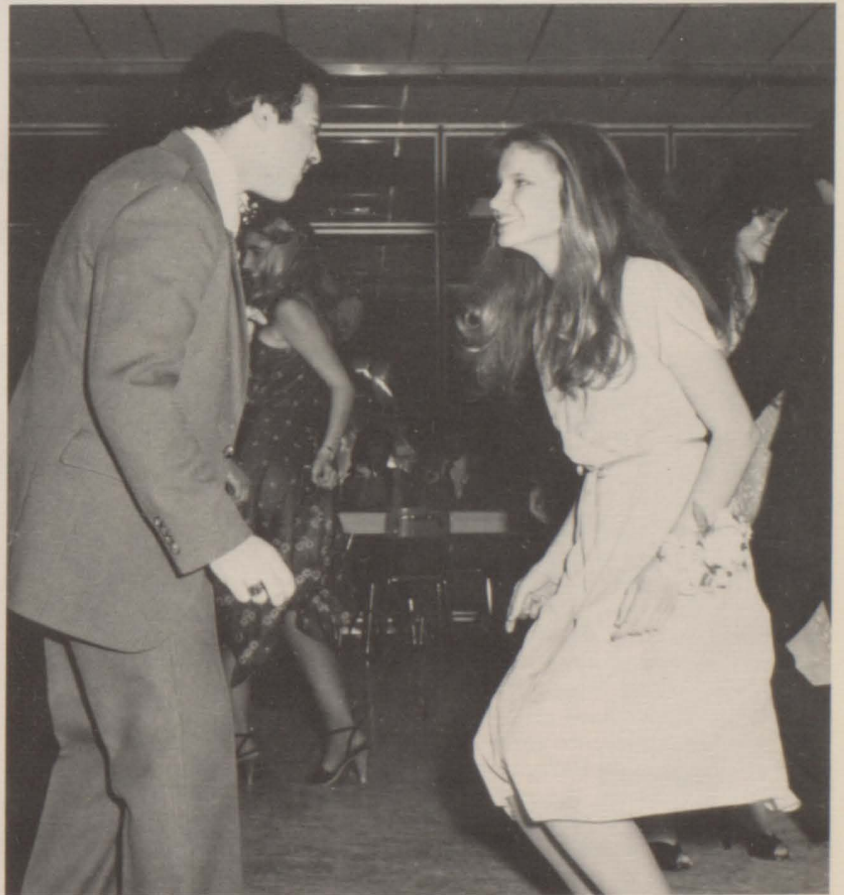

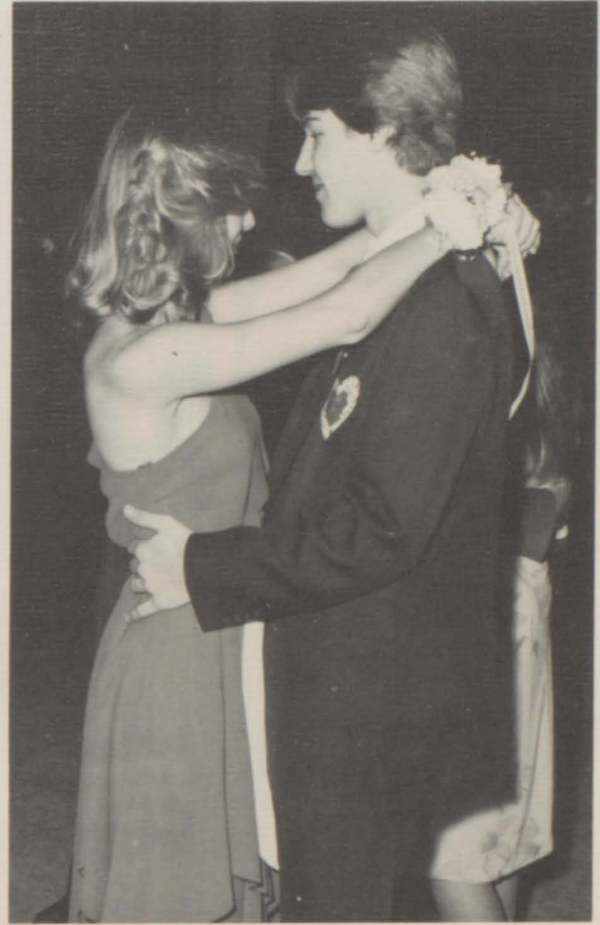

P.P.S. Find someone else to hold that passenger door of yours closed, turkey. (Use rope . . . around your neck)

P.P.P.S. Color my heart BLUE, and your eyes black if you ever call me again.

1981 VALENTINE'S COURT: Steve Marino and Mary Beth Gaeta, Mike Adams and Lesli Prager, Queen Karen Gadomski and Paul Fikaris, Ellen Hartman, and Norm Koenig, Lynette Alvarez and Nick D'Angelo, Lisa Calamita and Kevin Keiser.

"HEARTS ON FIRE"

PROM '80 — "Hold On To Your Dreams"

"Oh, I can't believe it . . . he finally called and asked me to prom. Was it the Velamints, the extra flossing after lunch, or those "accidental" meetings in the halls between classes? What am I going to wear? I wonder if I'll be able to find size 12 dress shoes? Can he dance? Is he going to talk about sports for eight hours?"

No matter what may have worried our 200 couples prior to Prom night, the evening and early morning hours went by all too quickly.

First stop was Giacomo's Party Center in Willowick. (It's rumored that they are now serving lasagna before dessert - instead of after.) Once the dishes were cleared and Gail Majeska and Vince Ruggieri were crowned, everyone except the chaperones and the band disappeared.

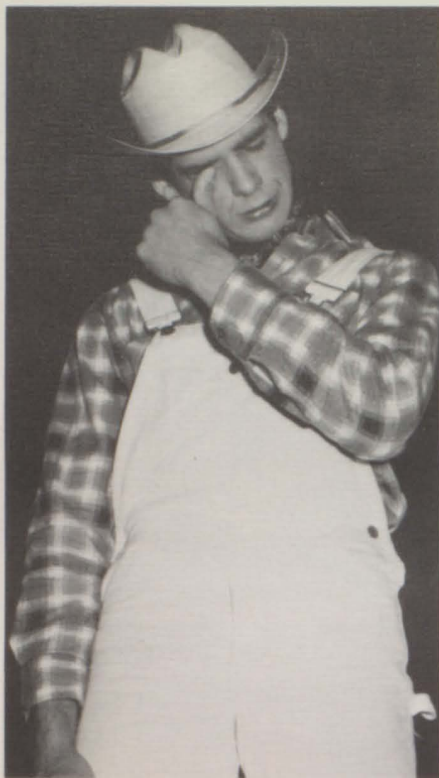

After changing into something more comfortable, it was on to the Normandy Party Center in Euclid. "Abraxas" woke us up as we danced the wee hours of morn away. All that was left was "to hold on to our dreams."

P.S. I just realized that my date paid $52 for a tux that he wore for four hours, and we never danced while he was wearing it. (Looks good in the pictures though.)

DIRTY WORK AT THE

CROSSROADS — Boo! Hiss! Hurray!

When America was glued to its TV set trying to figure out who shot J.R., there was an even more outrageous form of villainy taking place in our own auditorium. The ever-sinister John Blanc as Munro Murgatroyd terrified everyone in his "dirty work at the crossroads." (BOO!)

But, do not despair . . . Eric Schikowski STEPPED into the role of Adam Oakhart to save the day, as well as our lovely heroine, Nellie Lovelace - played to perfection by Ann Moser. (HURRAY!)

Munro (HISS!) tried to "sidetrack" the performances of Mookie (Brad VanVeghel) and Adam, but both were saved by the fickle Ida Rhinegold (Leslie Russo).

The forces of good multiplied as Mark Bartolotta, Amy Zimmer, Terri Machi, and Chris Cianciolo joined together to derail the evil intentions of that dastardly Munro. (YEAH!)

"WEST SIDE STORY" — Love Doesn't

Always Conquer

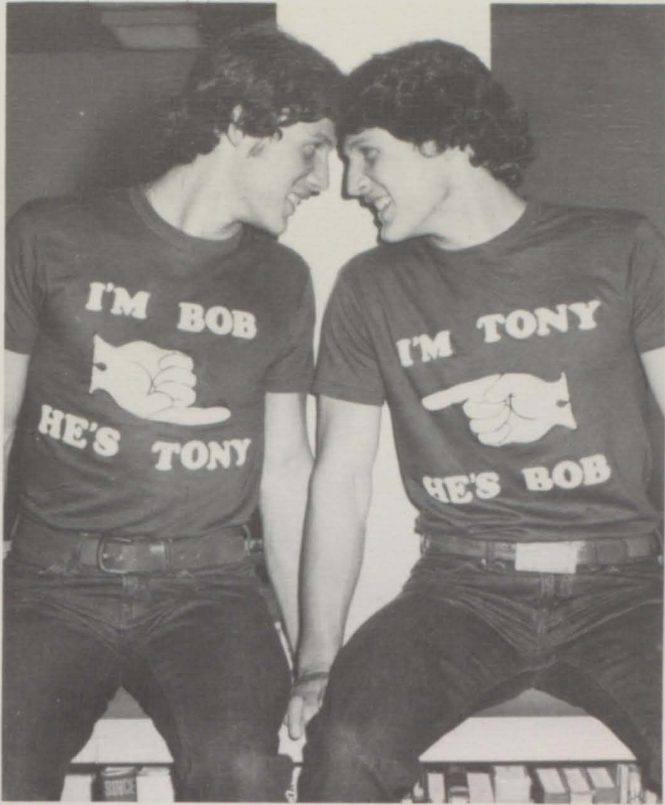

For many students, the only time they step onto a stage in four years of high school is to receive their diplomas at the Front Row Theatre. If these students could only have experienced that special joy that comes from an applause at the final curtain, they may have had second thoughts about passing up tryouts.

Last March, many aspiring actors debuted as A Capella Choir jumped from their robes to the streets of New York to stage their version of Leonard Bernstein's "West Side Story."

Tony (Bob Razzante) - or was that Bob (Tony Razzante) - fell instantly for Maria (Diane Herrick), a girl from a rival gang. From their first "starcrossed" meeting, their love affair headed toward a tragic ending. Turf leaders, Riff (Al Kretz) of the Jets and Bernardo (Dick Yee) of the Sharks, pulled Tony and Maria into a whirlpool of hate that eventually destroyed everyone.

AND YOU THOUGHT SHAKESPEARE WAS DEAD

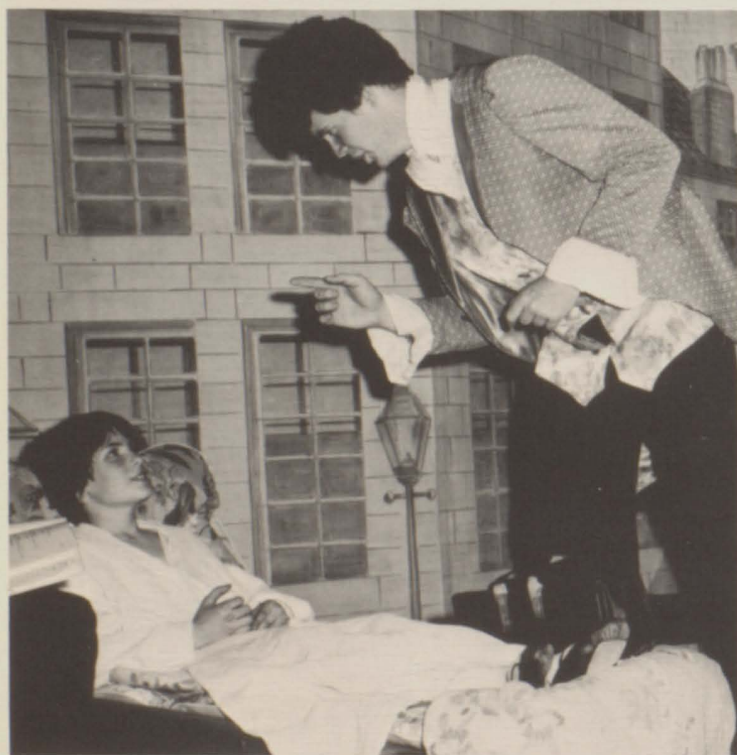

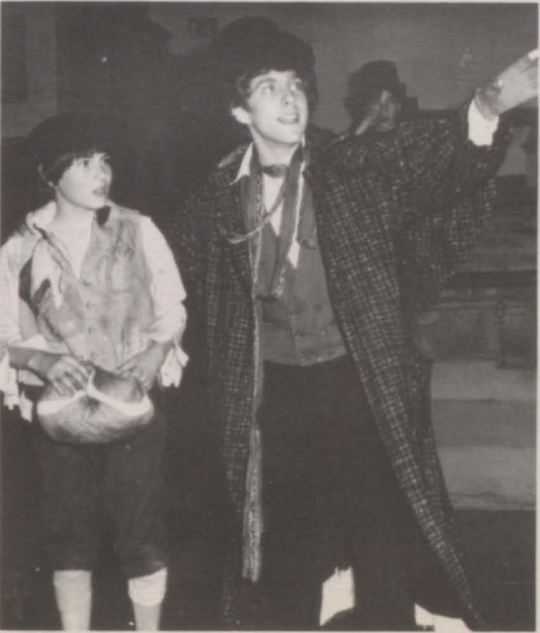

OLIVER — That Szuhay's Done IT Again!

There are two men in town who are famous for their gems - Larry Robinson and John Szuhay. Just whose collection is more valuable might be very strongly debated. Last spring's musical production of "Oliver" added another GEM to Szuhay's treasure chest of classics.

New faces appeared all over our theater. Tom Connor, Vicky Morell, Bob Marino, and Bruce Motter all made their debuts. Bob Marino could not have been more frightening and cruel as Bill Sykes. Bea Cummins, our A.F.S. student from the British Isles, gave us that added touch of realism. John Blanc, Ann Burchard, Eric Delson, and Bob Razzante proved once again why they are the backbone of this theatrical troupe. Their portrayals of Mr. Bumble, Nancy, the Artful Dodger, and the irrepressible pickpocket, Fagin, were a masterful combination of both comedy and tragedy.

And talking about gems . . . that Bruce Motter as Oliver is really a diamond in the rough.

EXAM SLAM — Natural Highs

Now this is what we call excitement. Our varsity basketball team had just squeezed by Euclid on a couple of "clutch" free throws by Joe "Kool-Head" Kerner. For an hour and a half the gym shook with Wildcat emotion is a scene that we didn't think could be topped. Little did we realize that the "final" buzzer was only the beginning.

The 9-10 cafeteria was soon crammed with ravenous bodies in search of free pizza and pop served up by student council. It didn't take long for the attention to switch from food to entertainment. Roy Baker's band, "Sundance," took the electricity from the gym and used it to charge up the student body. Roy, the kid with the charisma, proceeded to knock their socks off with a musical performance that will not soon be forgotten.

P.S. We hope that the ENCORE performed by "Sundance" is the first of many for us.

P.P.S. Is it necessary to go down the road for milk when there's cream in the kitchen?

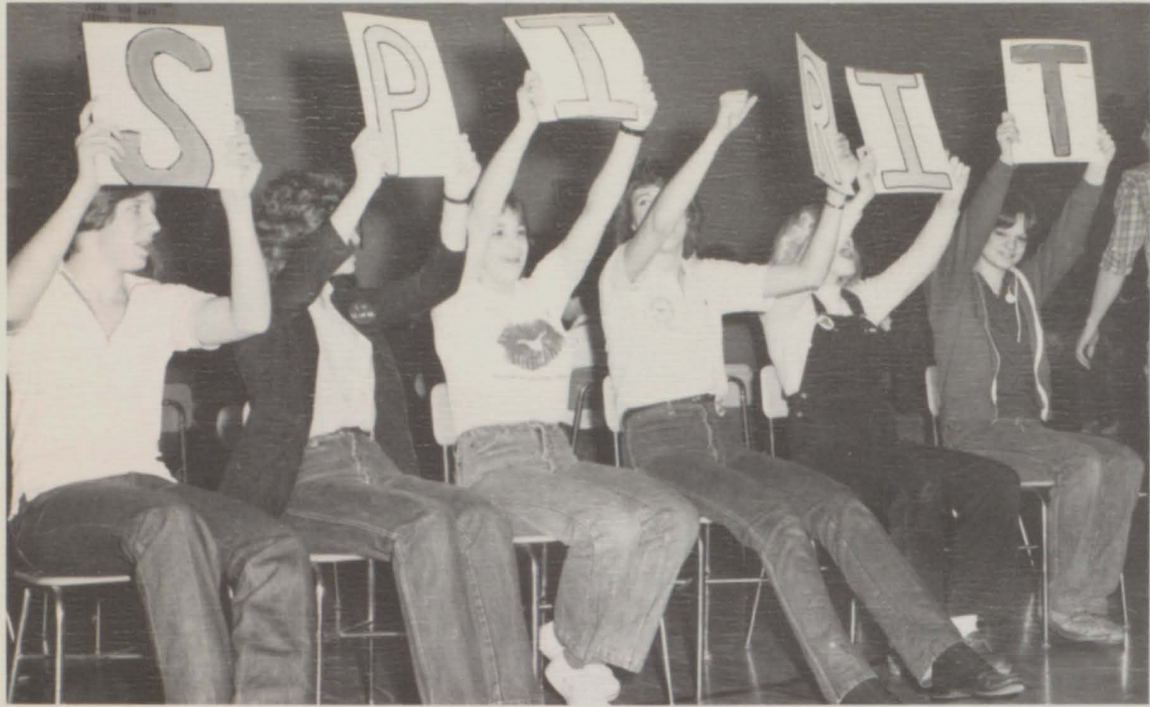

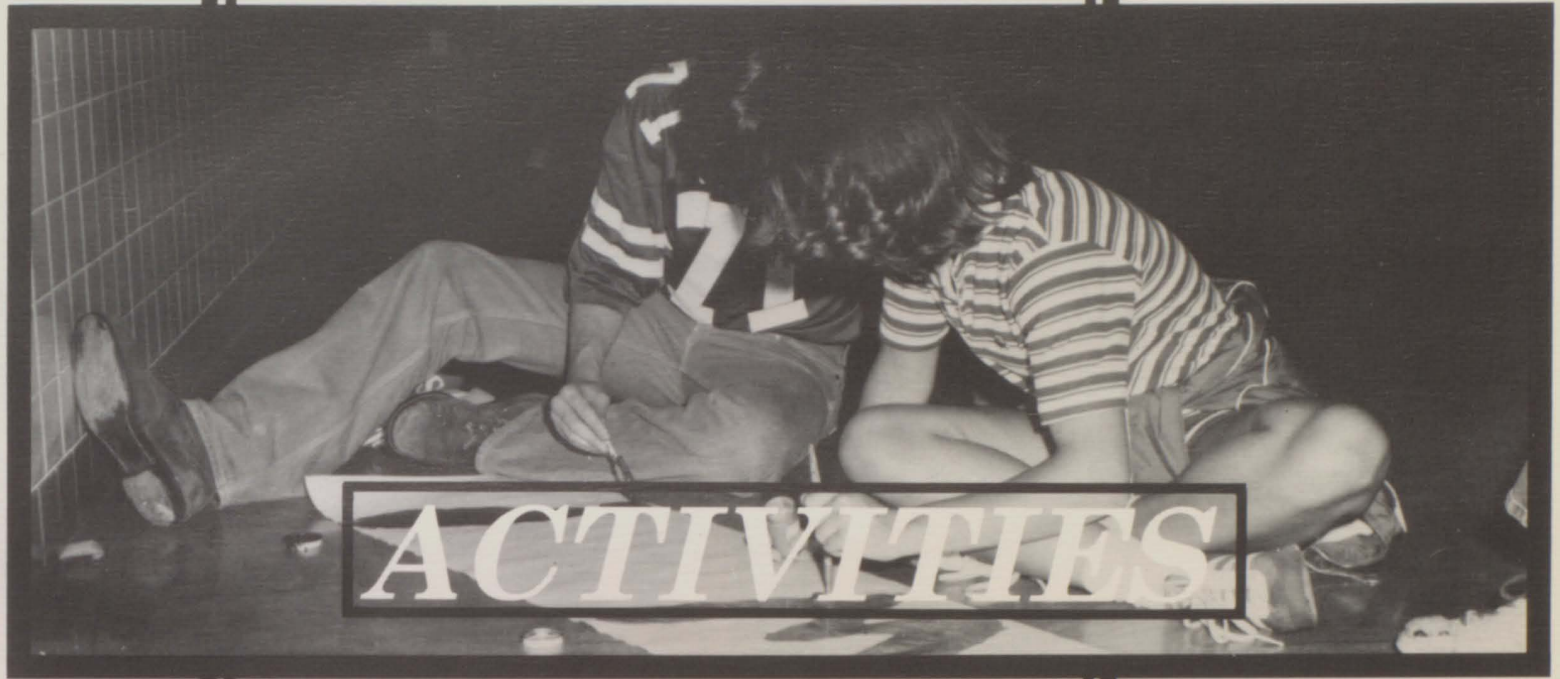

PEP RALLIES — If Only We Could Hear

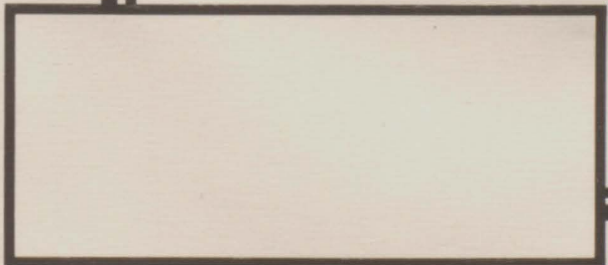

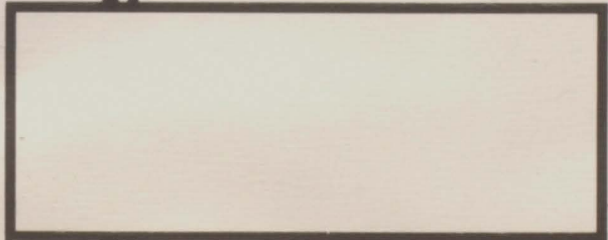

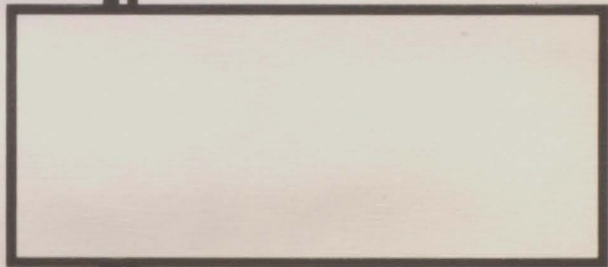

During the school year, you'll see the word SPIRIT printed on almost anything: buttons, ribbons, toy footballs, and poster-covered walls. But, no matter where it's printed, it is meaningless unless it comes from within. Until more and more of us become an active part in creating spirit, all those ribbons, posters, and buttons won't win a single game.

The nation might have continued to suffer from an energy crisis this year, but when we did have pep rallies accompanied by the pep band, there wasn't a gym in the Cleveland area that could generate more electricity. Roy Baker and friends lit that spark of spirit within us.

ACTIVITIES

OUR YEARBOOK STAFF — US minus one

It is often much easier to write of the accomplishments of others than it is to speak or write of our own. We could have tried to impress you with the total number of hours we spent on the yearbook, but that is not why we're here. (Besides, you'll always be able to find someone who will be more than happy to take the time out to tell you how hard they work.)

To the people on these pages, the creation of the MAYFIELDER is an affair of the heart. As your parents take great pleasure in seeing you mature, we, too, take pride in seeing hundreds of pictures and stacks of copy sheets transform themselves into 192 pages of memories. We take pride in seeing you enjoy this book. P.S. This year's editor, Judy Meco, will be leaving us and finishing her senior year in Houston, Texas. Her importance and worth to all of us could never be underestimated or overpraised. She is special.

CONSTRUCTION CREW: Judy Meco, Barb Oliver, Paul Monastra, Eric Finerman, Suzy Gluck, Terri Monastra, Bob Razzante, and Kellie Jo Durkin.

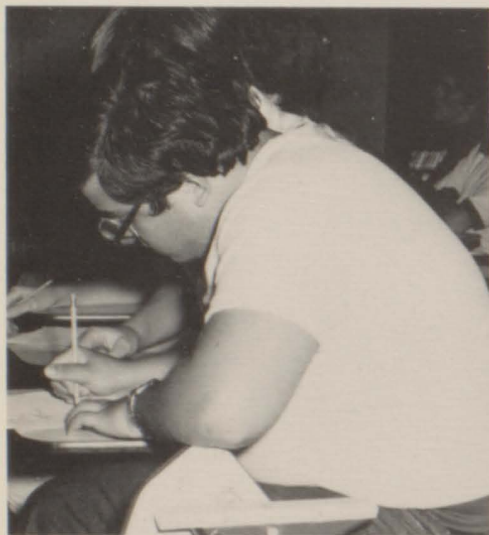

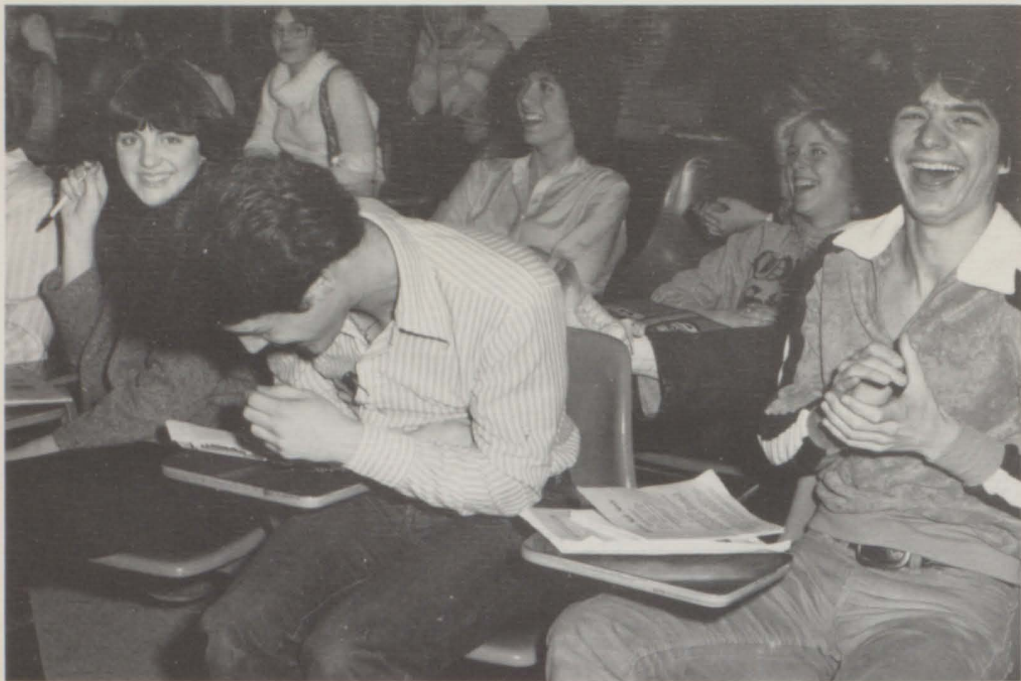

STUDENT COUNCIL — Following the Leader

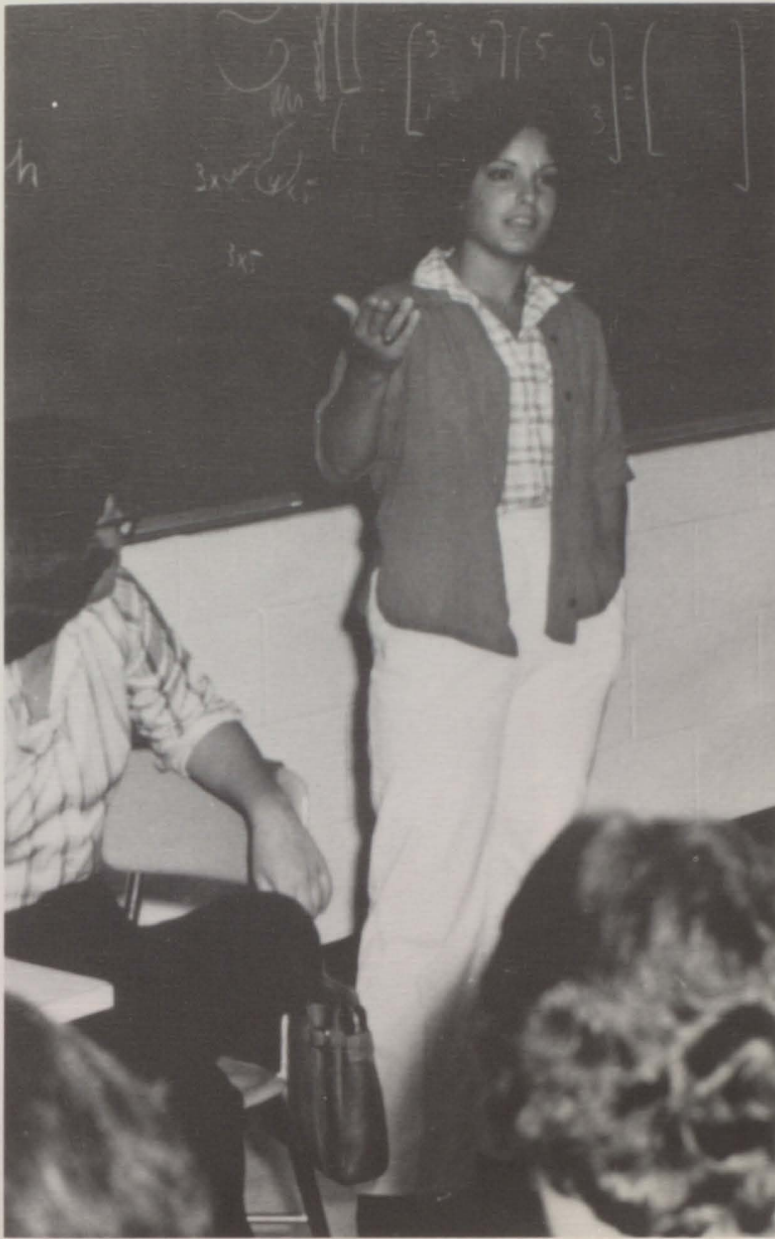

Pull out your pens and pencils . . . it's "pop" quiz time. In order to be certified as an expert in the affairs of student council, you must first take the following True-False Test:

1. Student council is responsible for both Spirit Week and Homecoming.
2. The yearly withdrawals by the Bloodmobile are sponsored by student council.
3. The Exam Slam was student council's greatest success.

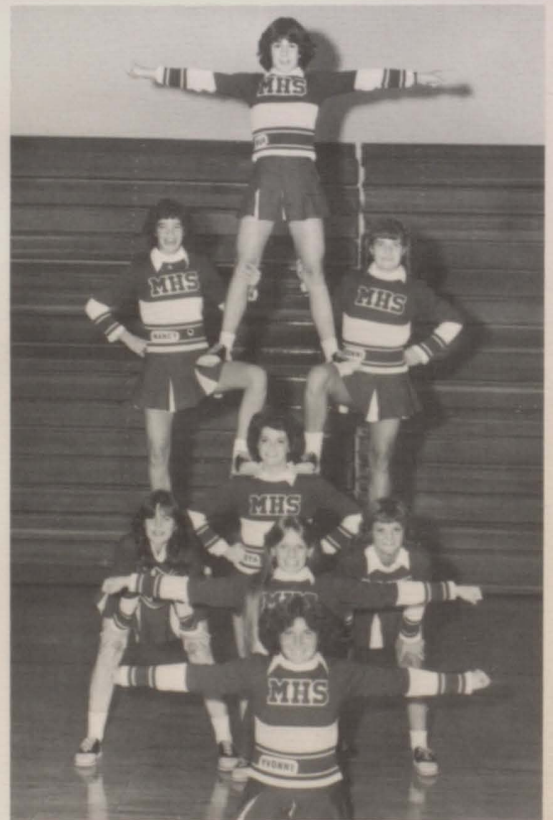

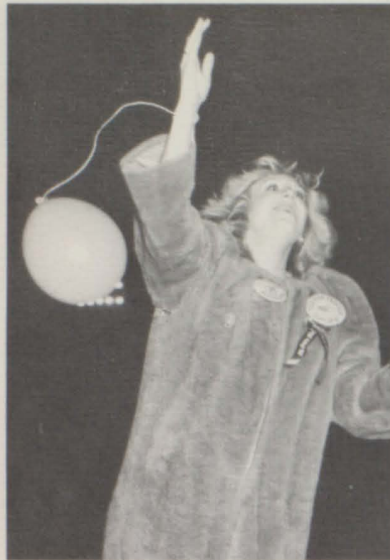

If you answered "true" to all of these, you are indeed knowledgeable about student council. If you got one or two correct, you're probably a good guesser. If you missed them all, you probably attend another school and shouldn't be reading this anyway.

From putting on a Halloween Dress-Up Day to handing out yellow ribbons to commemorate the release of the hostages, your officers Margie Kerr, Tony Razzante, Mary Beth Gaeta, and Elaine Busher have sought by their involvement to get all of us INVOLVED.

CHEERLEADERS — Our Own Energy Generators

Perfecting any routine consumes countless hours. But being center stage at game time is worth all the effort, right? Not if you have to perform in front of lifeless, empty seats. Such is the life of a JV or freshman cheerleader. But instead of becoming embittered, these young women simply get better.

Take a good look into the faces on these pages. Smiles, energy, and a genuine zest for life are captured here. These pages are alive. The pages also showcase a group of students that are never afraid to go that proverbial "extra mile." This varsity team has out-worked and out-spirited any group within memory. In addition, these girls deserve a special commendation. On their own, they began performing for soccer matches this year. This is a practice we hope becomes a future habit.

With all that is involved in cheerleading today, a Mayfield cheerleader wears the soles off her saddle shoes twice as fast as cheerleaders used to. Not only do you have to be an excellent gymnast, but you also have to perfect more formations and hand movements than the Midshipmen from Annapolis. (It's worth all the effort; however, when you have great teams to cheer about as we did this year.)

VARSITY WRESTLING: Mary Beth Gaeta, Katie Doerzbacher, Lynette Alvarez, Maura Kilbane, Amy Hehr, Kim Dicker, Elana Ariemma
FRESHMEN WRESTLING: Karen Dicker, Karen Bird, Donna Pinto, Margaret Tilly, Suzanna Peterman.
FRESHMEN BASKETBALL: 1st Row: Lisa Comella
 2nd Row: Joyce Pirie and Rose DeNigris
 3rd Row: Debra Conti
 4th Row: Dawn Emerman

GO TEAMS, GO!

MAJORETTES — Majoring in Entertainment

There is an age-old maxim that "all that glitters is not gold." That proverb certainly does not apply to our M&M's. They not only GLITTER, but they also put on 24-carat half-time performances. When Ann Moser, Diane Bird, Nan Corsaro, and Maria Suglia took over that 50 yard line, all eyes turned center stage. None of their performances "closed" the first night. Nothing but ENCORES prevailed.

The capital "M" in our M & M's is leaving us this year. Ann Moser is taking her show down a different road. She will be missed, but not forgotten.

DRILL TEAM — Pretty Faces Going Through Their Paces

They smile . . . ONE, TWO . . . they twirl . . . THREE, FOUR . . . they kick . . . FIVE, SIX . . . they dip . . . SEVEN, EIGHT. Our drill team has had that cadence drilled into their minds since last spring. These girls do everything by the numbers - from brushing their teeth to drinking a can of Pepsi in eight gulps. (It's been rumored that they even have eight boyfriends they can COUNT on.) All that counting does wonders; however, for their audiences sure can COUNT on an entertaining halftime show.

1st Row: Sue Adzema, Lisa Breth, Kim Kish. 2nd Row: Sharon Siegel, Jackie Liszak, Diana Marzano, Kim Yenkevich, Michelle Schwartz, Terri Monastra, Pam Maneri, and Mary Bodnar.

OUR WILDCAT MARCHING BAND —

Dear Mom,

Help!

NOBODY told me that camp was going to be like this. It's been raining all week. Our cabin was completely flooded yesterday. My underwear was even drenched. At night it's been about 30 degrees in here. (I've been covering myself with leaves) I'm sick of hot dogs for breakfast, lunch, dinner, and snacks. My lips are chapped. And that girl at the end of my line has been staring strangely at me all week. (I think her name is Suzy.)

Daily workouts are tough. Tomorrow we learn how to do "Script Cats" and already our officers Dave Bart, Dick Yee, Roy Baker, and JoAnne D'Allesandro are arguing who is going to dot the I. (My name wasn't mentioned.)

All the boys went swimming today. Because we didn't goof around, Mr. Treu let us stick around and watch the girls. (Suzy watched me.)

Tomorrow is also NERD day. John Blanc told me that I don't have to dress up.

Everyone keeps telling me what a BLAST football season will be. I'm waiting.

Love,
Tooter

Instrumental in Our Success!

OUR MUSIC PROGRAM

The love for music that is presented here may have started years ago when learning that first stanza of a McDonald's jingle or with the battering that first drum took after that fifth birthday. Whatever may have started them on their way, we have been the ones to benefit from the plethora of talents of our musicians and singers.

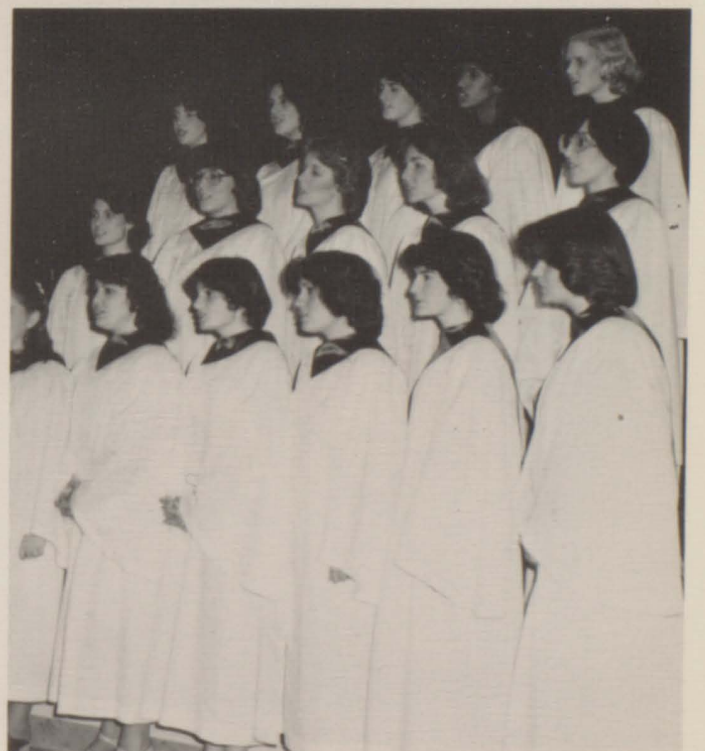

There are no specialists here, as the same person who is in Marching Band, may sing with Great Jubilation and Treble Choir, while taking time out from play practice to dress as a pilgrim in the Pep Band. The entertainment has just begun as our Stage Band blares out a tune that rocks the foundation of the stage while they practice to cut their first album.

Mr. Treu, Mr. Rayer, and Mrs. Drehs have certainly shown us that the "Pride of Mayfield" extends beyond the Marching Band and exhibits itself throughout the music department.

P.S. Quality leadership is indicative of success and will certainly miss those people who were our leaders in more than just playing a tune . . . Roy Baker, John Blanc, Dave Bart, and Joann D'Alessandro.

Tuned in to Success

Voices Raised in Great Jubilation

A Multitude of Talents in Harmony

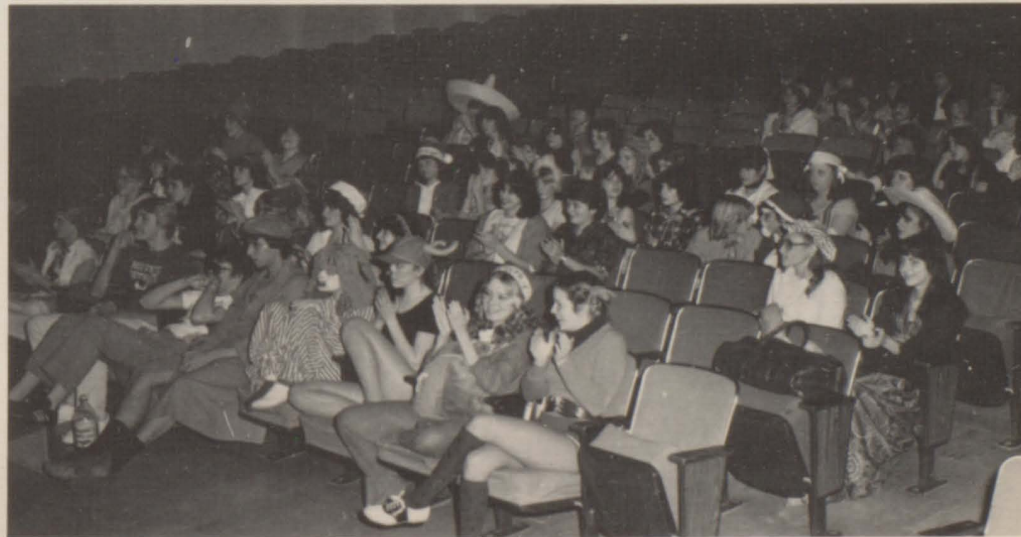

MAYFIELD PLAYERS — Deserving of Another Encore

Let's get busy, people! There are only six weeks until opening night. We need singers, dancers, laughers, criers, make-up artists and directors. Can you swing a hammer? I heard that you like to paint. How would you like to help design our next program? Can you give us a hand with wardrobe? Do you know anything about lighting? Anybody for McDonald's . . .

Between those first recalls and our closing performances, much goes into turning chaos into order. There are no magical wands turning sheets of plywood into trees and trading posts . . . or transforming ragged rejects into glittering gowns. Perspiration, pain, and pride are the only ingredients in this success story.

TUTOR FRIENDS — Growing Together

All too often, accusations fly from all directions about the selfish attitudes of young people today. "Kids in school aren't the way they used to be," is a maxim mumbled by many a disgruntled observer of youth. The next time anyone says that to you, show them these pages.

The students in our Tutor Friends program are "friends" in the true sense of the word. They'll listen, help, praise, and above all else, take pride in the success of others. There is no need to ask how the children relate to our seniors . . . these pictures tell all.

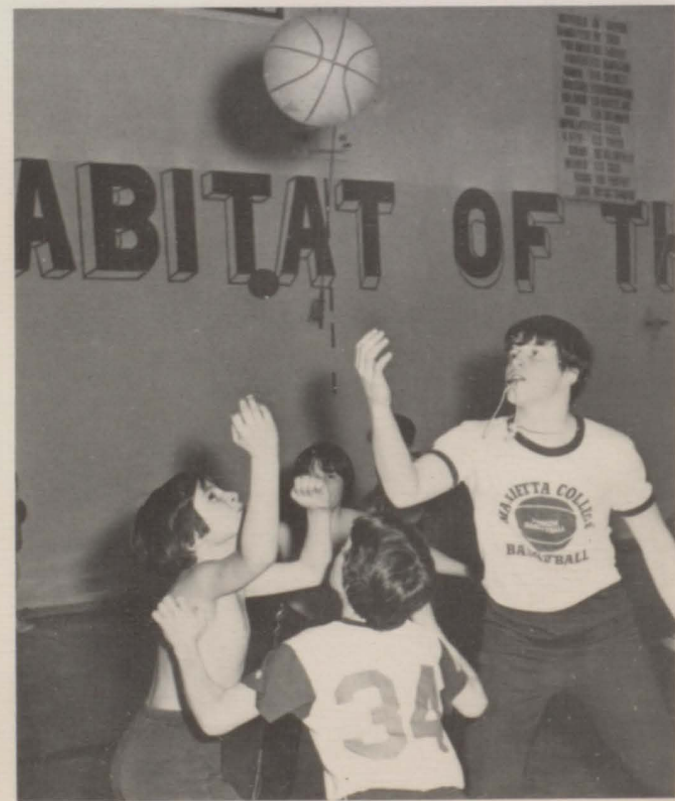

Our sports' teams are usually the only vehicle by which the community judges our student body. That's a shame. Nobody is keeping score, but we have a hunch that more victories are being won in these classrooms than on any of our athletic fields.

BIDDY BASKETBALL — The Foundation of our Dynasty

It's no secret why Coach Steadman has a successful program. Eight years ago, our present GCC Champs started out as the "little guys" on a page similar to this. They learned from their Saturday morning heroes, honed their skills together, and are now reinforcing those fundamentals by teaching them to others.

Trophies aren't awarded on Saturday morning, but ALL of the kids here are rewarded. (In more ways than one)

CAT'S CABINET — Fashioning Dreams

Dear Queen Karen Gadomski,

I have just come home from overseas, and I am interested in breaking into the fashion industry. Unfortunately, my home town of Toledo offers little opportunity in this area. As I was having my hair coiffed last Saturday, I overheard an ex-queen of your club raving about your Prom Fashion Show. Am I to understand that club members can model their own collections? My trunks are bursting with designer originals by the Oriental and Lebanese masters.

The nurses in Korea love my collection, so I know I'll be the hit of your show. My dream is for you to crown me at your next Valentine's dance.

Anxiously,
Corporal Max Klinger,
Retired

P.S. Will I have to shave my legs?

For most high school students in America, the only way to spend a year abroad is to get drafted. There is an alternative, however. We call it AFS or American Field Service. Only those with a sense of adventure and a willingness to adapt need apply. If many of us were suddenly without double cheese pizza, 8-track tapes, automobiles, family and friends; we would be left with only one thing . . . despair. What an AFS student sees in this same situation is opportunity. An opportunity to extend horizons and learn from others.

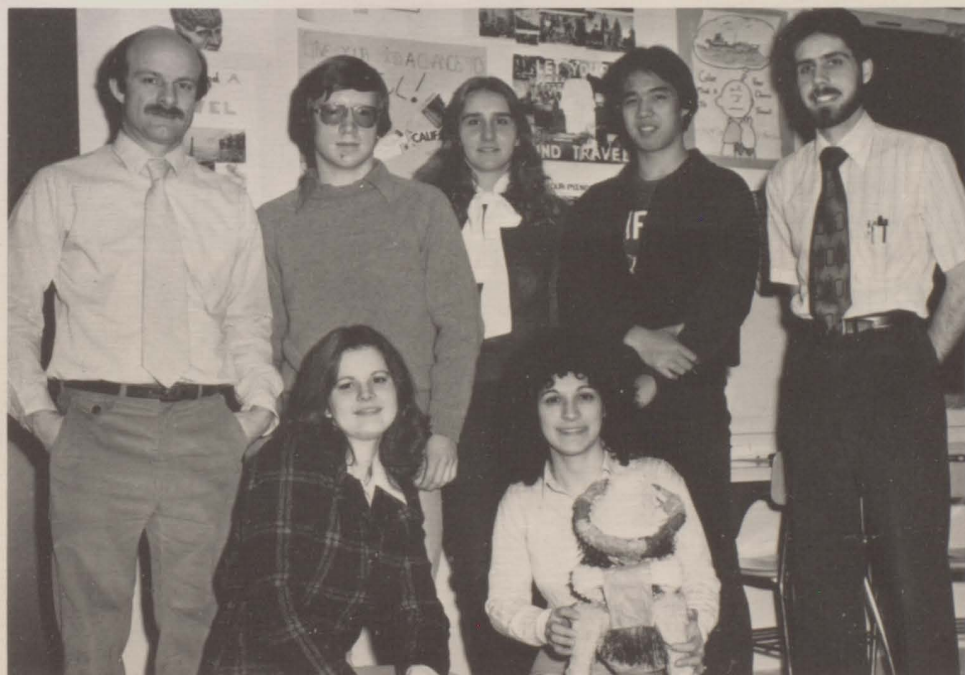

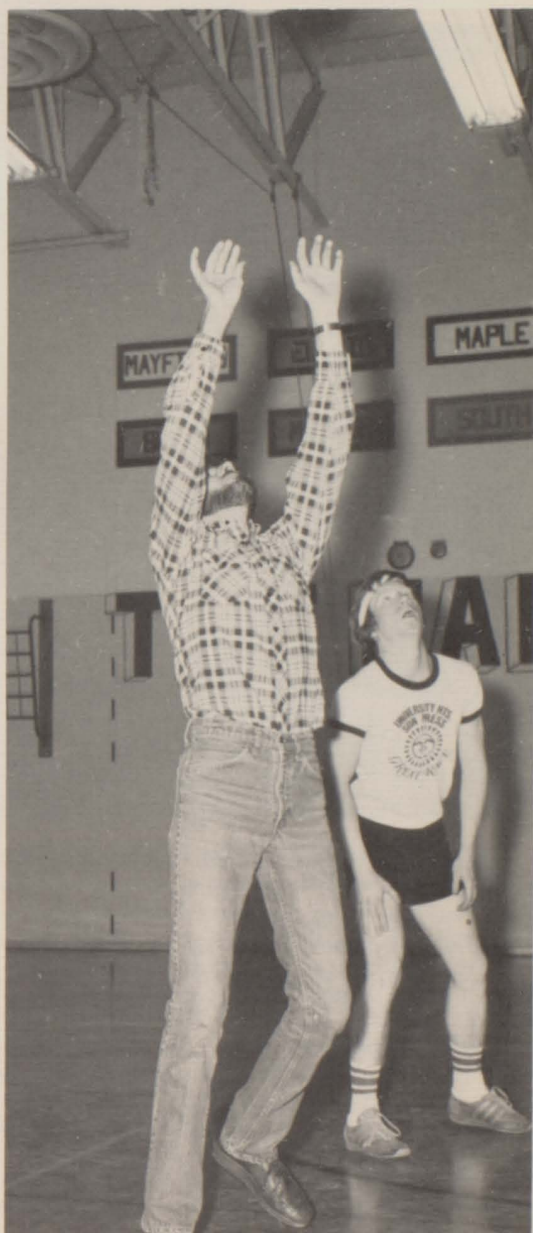

FOREIGN LANGUAGE CLUB — Just Pray You're Not the Pinata

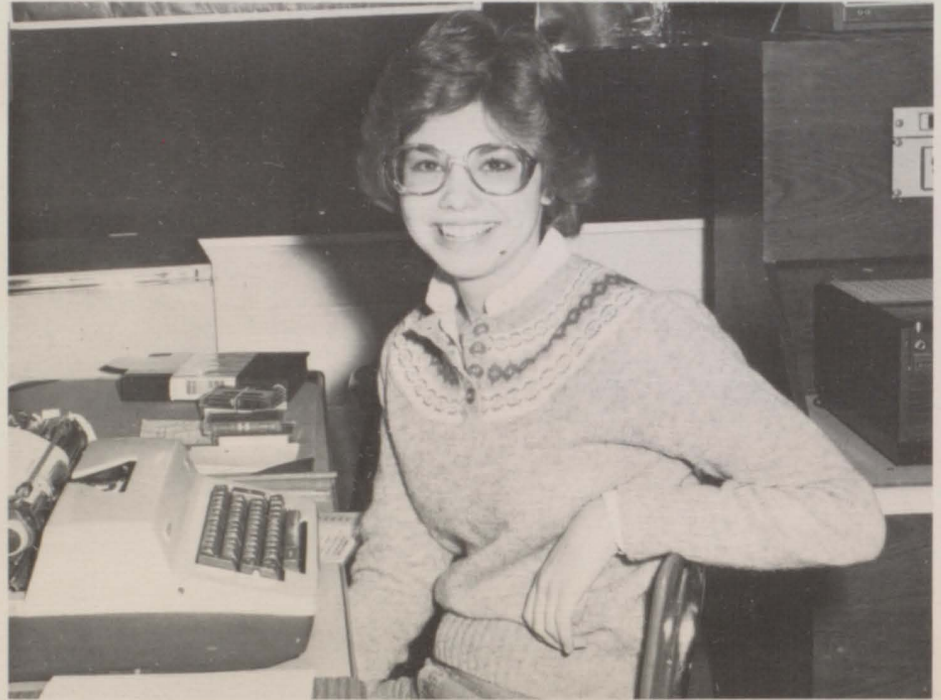

Last year this club was inadvertently left out of the yearbook. We've corrected our oversight this year, but the pictures here are no indication of all of the activities this group is involved in. We wish we could have taken some candid shots of the many excursions this lucky group has taken to various nationality restaurants; but, unfortunately, we were never invited.

Did you know that there are eighty-seven different nationalities in Metropolitan Cleveland? Well, this club has not only sampled the cuisine of all 87, but they also have mastered all the customs and dialects. (No wonder they smile a lot.) In addition, this select group is responsible for trying to bring some of that variety to school by instituting what we hope becomes a tradition — "Foreign Language Week."

We do have a concern, however. Is it true that members of this group are involved in a bizarre ritual where they beat a defenseless paper-mache animal with sticks?

MEDIA SERVICES — Life in Fast-Forward

Thanks to the special technology made available to us, the entire story of Media Services has been preserved for posterity on videotape. An edited version is available in a 45 minute slide presentation narrated by Slim Whitman. (Copies of both can be obtained from Locker No. 425 after 6 P.M.)

Where could we have found the room on this page to narrate the exploits of these multi-talented technicians. It never ceases to amaze us how quietly and quickly they can strip an entire floor of all media equipment in less than six seconds. (Did you ever notice that everyone in this organization wears tennis shoes and is always looking in corners?)

All kidding aside, what a dull place this school would be without these people and their hardware. Social Studies would have to go out of business.

KEY CLUB — BOOKSTORE (Thanks!)

If given the opportunity, most of us usually choose to spend our spare moments relaxing or visiting with friends. The students in both of these clubs are willing to give up that time to take jobs which net them little acclaim or attention.

Most of us would not even appreciate them unless they were suddenly unavailable to sell us a sub-sandwich or candy bar during the Sectional Wrestling Tournament or hand us a copy of that novel we were supposed to have in class yesterday.

There are no varsity letters given here . . . just satisfaction from serving and helping others.

FIRST AMENDMENT — We Accept Credit Cards and Checks

TO: Mr. Lou Grant, c/o The Los Angeles Tribune
 FR: First Amendment Staff
 RE: Poverty

Dear Mr. Grant:

Help! We don't know where else we can turn. We have all the news that's fit to print, but we've run out of money to print it with. (We invested all of our money in the Carter-Mondale re-election campaign.)

We are usually above begging for anything, but just this once I think we can overlook that. Do you think that Mrs. Pincheon might be able to spare a few hundred dollars to prevent fellow journalists from going completely under? (We promise to give your show favorable reviews in our new T.V. Guide section.)

Respectfully,
The First Amendment Staff

P.S. If you can't send money, our editor, Cindy Meco, said she'll settle for Rossi.

STAFF MEMBERS: Rachel Dobres, Anna Marino, Donna DeLuca, Richard El-Hage, Ted Burnham, Mike Sager, Lorraine Keast. Sitting: Cindy "Boss Lady" Meco, JoAnne Salvi, and Mrs. Harlan, our advisor.

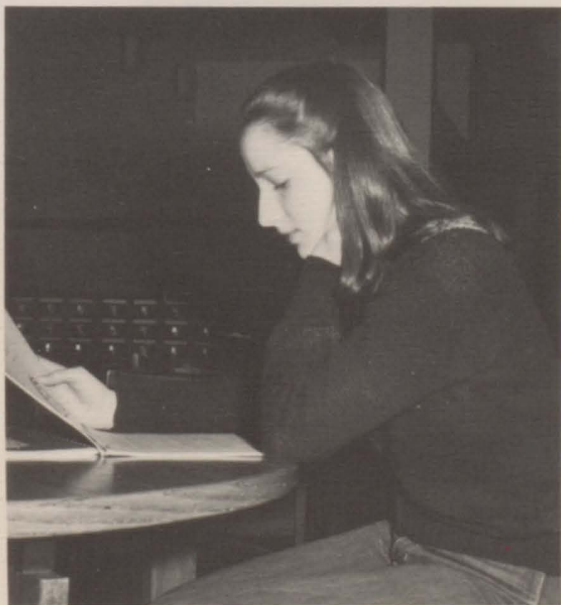

VOICES — Echoes of Emotions

Someone who is a non-reader will probably never read the material printed on this page, much less pick up a copy of VOICES, our school literary magazine.

Anyone, who does take the time to pay one dollar for a copy, will certainly come to realize both the artistic and literary talents of many of our students.

Paula Hunt, Sue Stevenson and their staff worked many hours to create the second best publication that Mayfield has to offer. (Only our modesty prevents us from stating who is in that number one spot.)

OUTING CLUB — Are You Up To It?

Every year we discover that the "Call of the Wild" is more than a name that Jack London gave to a novel. Many of our Outing Club members are adventurers with a true "pioneer spirit." If you can think of a new challenge for this group, from "Cheating the Cheet" to exploring a cave in Missouri, you will find many takers.

Our outdoor enthusiasts know the excitement and the thrill of conquering something which they probably never imagined that they would attempt . . . let alone accomplish.

Get involved . . . Take the challenge!

P.S. We would like to thank the Outing Club for providing us with these outstanding pictures. Our barren walls are no match for these backgrounds.

SKI CLUB — Only for POLES

There aren't too many nights between December and March when our downhill daredevils aren't glued to Dick Goddard's weather forecast to see if Lake Erie will dump that frozen white stuff up to our windowsills.

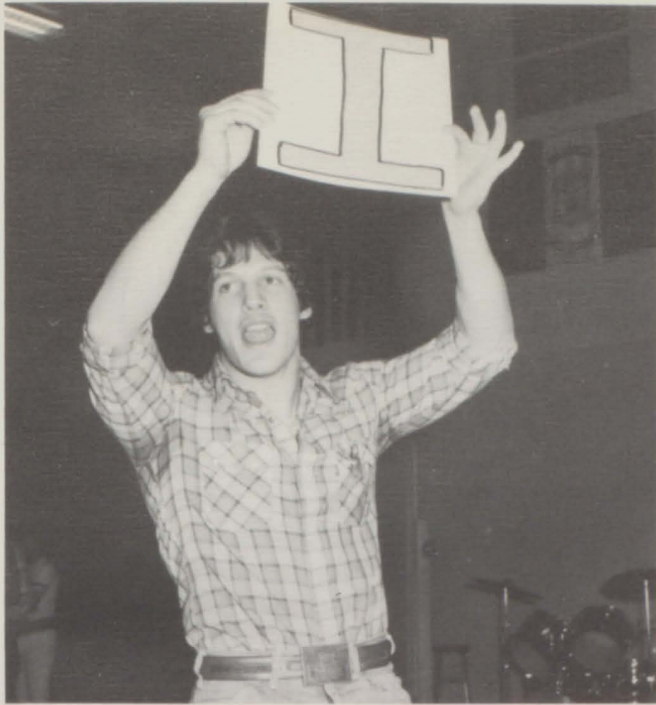

Every Tuesday, Boston Mills was invaded as our schussers took to the slopes. They zigged, they zagged, and wound up by the flames.

It was always easy on Wednesday to tell the rookies from the pros by just watching who wouldn't sit down while eating lunch.

P.S. The yearbook staff will give a free yearbook to any student who can identify the student in the picture in the lower left hand corner.

CHANGING MOODS — Tension Relievers

Hold up the word you use the most, Tony!

They're bringing back our vending machines!

"Not yet! She hasn't trimmed my moustache."

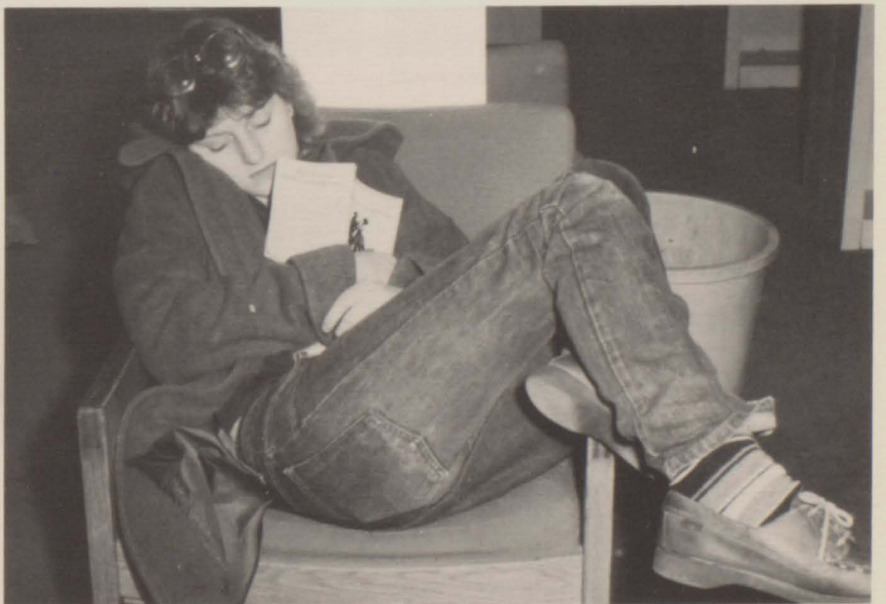

She's either lion or telling a long tale. (Get it?)

Miss Congeniality 1981

"Do you think she has noticed me yet?"

Nope . . . and I don't think she ever will, Jeff.

LAUGHTER IS THE CURE! — Can You Think of the Illness?

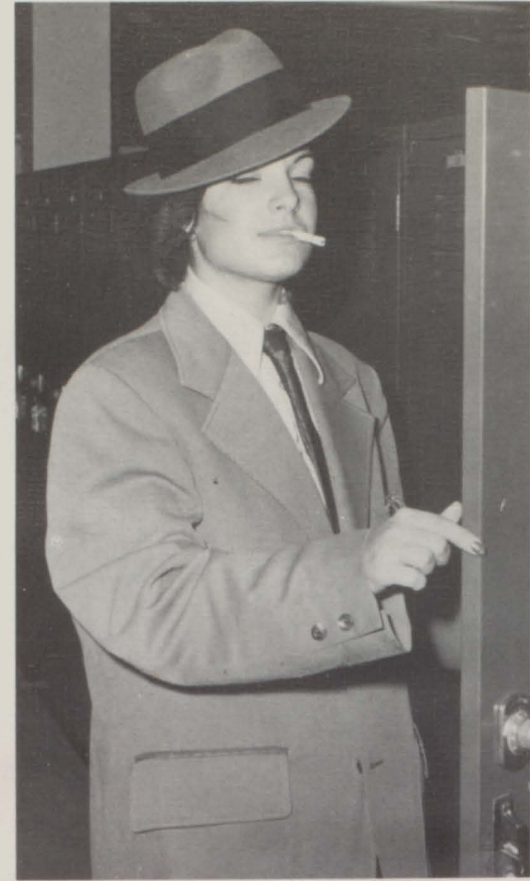

Destitute, Dateless, and Desperate

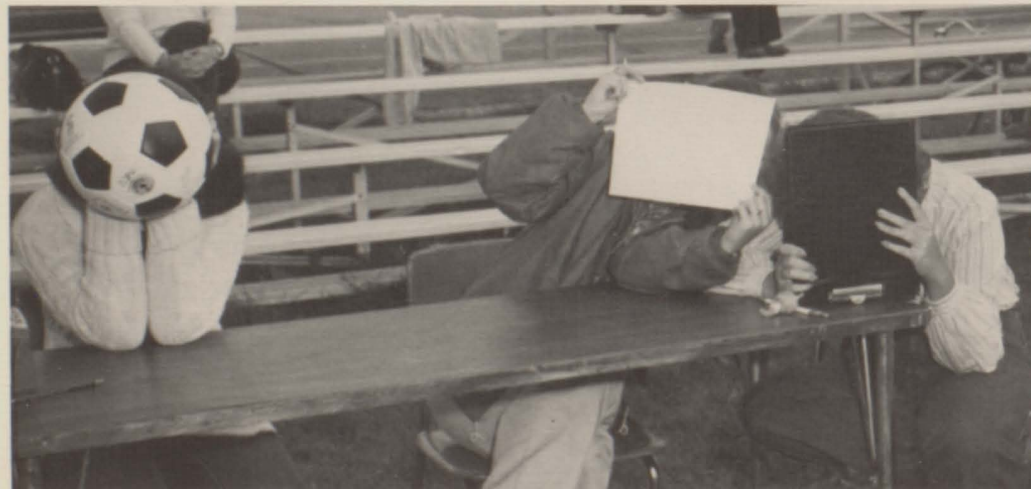

"C'mon, Ron. Katie said it's okay to dance with you."

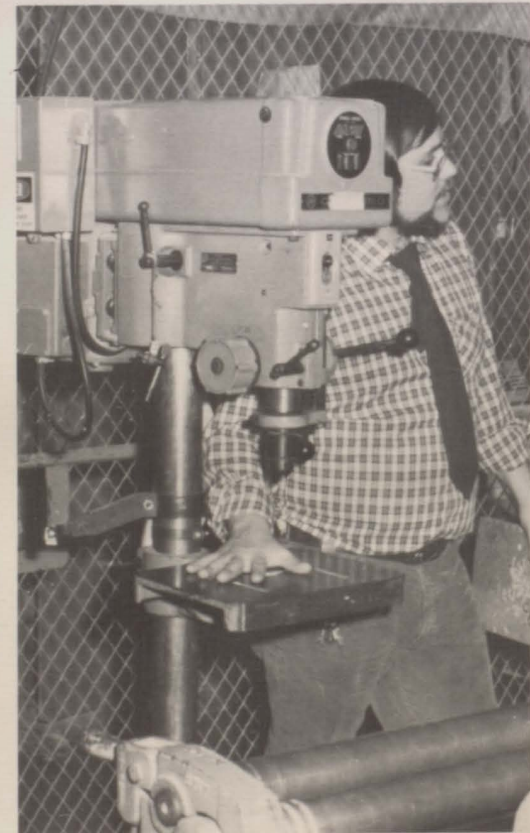

It's not working, he isn't jealous.

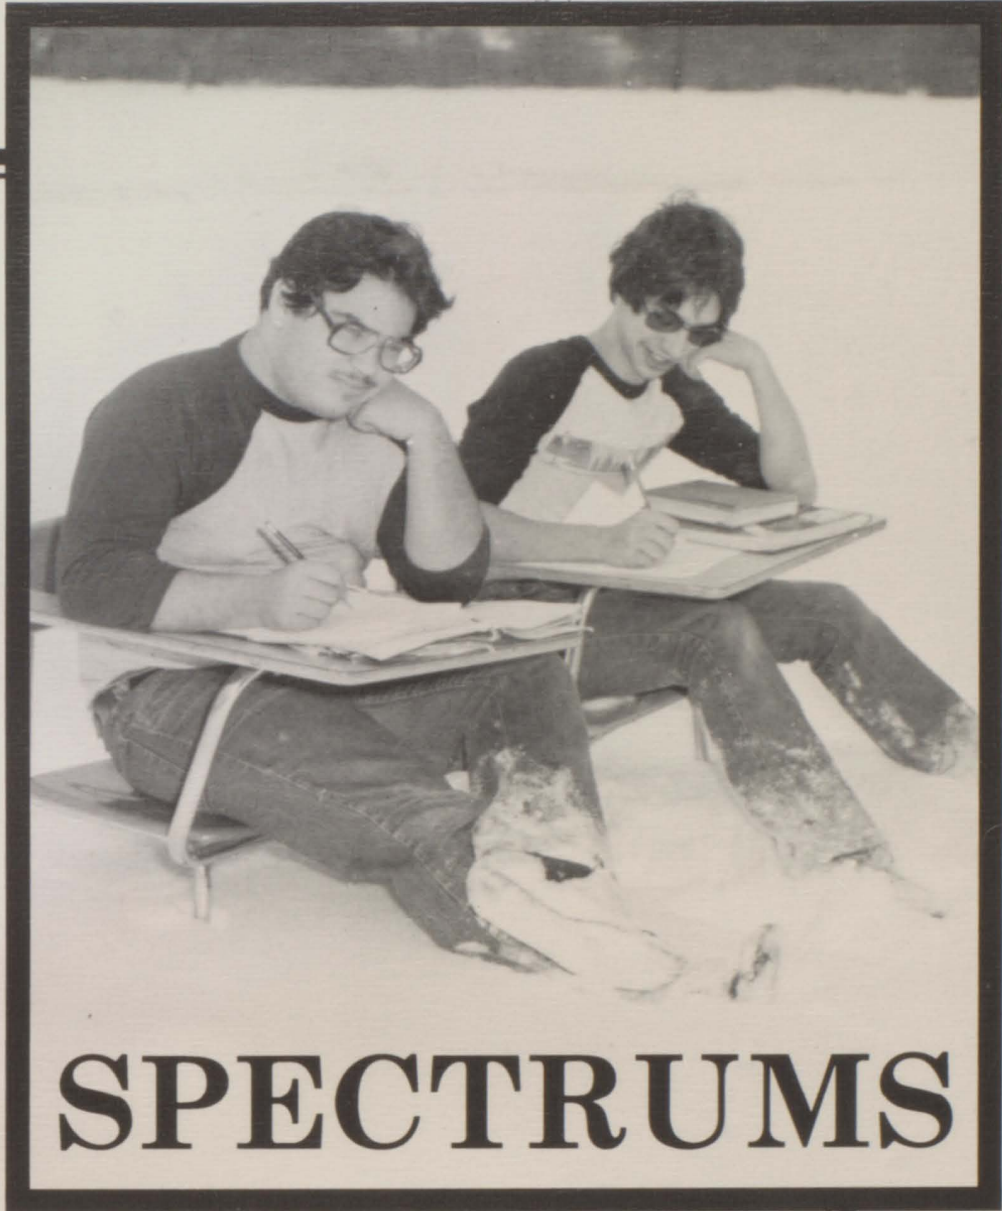

The Godmother

FOREIGN LANGUAGE WEEK — Maybe a Month Next Year

For an entire week in February, foreign language students had a chance to live their language as well as experience others. Foreign language teachers switched classes, and when they asked students to "button up," it was in regards to the many buttons the students had created for Button Day. There was also a T-shirt day. (Wasn't it something when those non-bilinguals pretended that they knew what the shirts said?) The week's highlight was the sampling of various ethnic foods like tacos, squid, pizza, fried bread, and heavy doses of Alka-Seltzer.

Foreign Language Week is one tradition we hope will never become Americanized.

MODEL U.N. — Let it Begin with U.S.

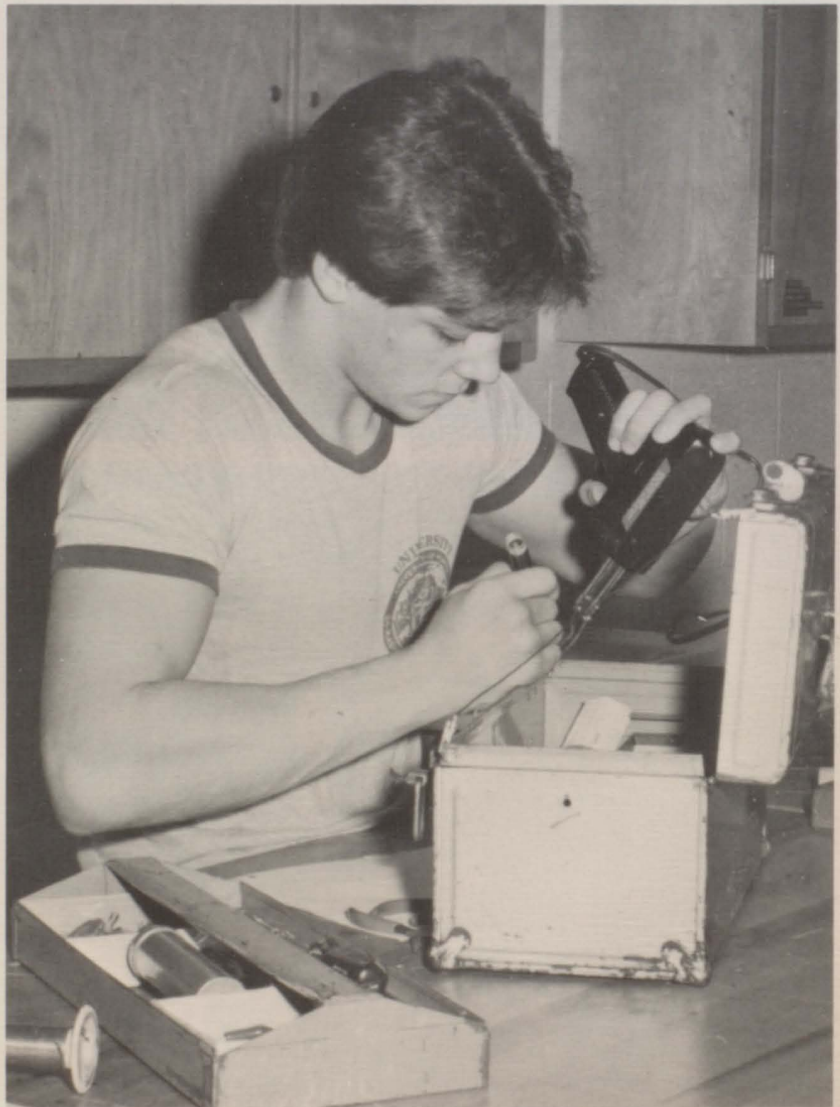

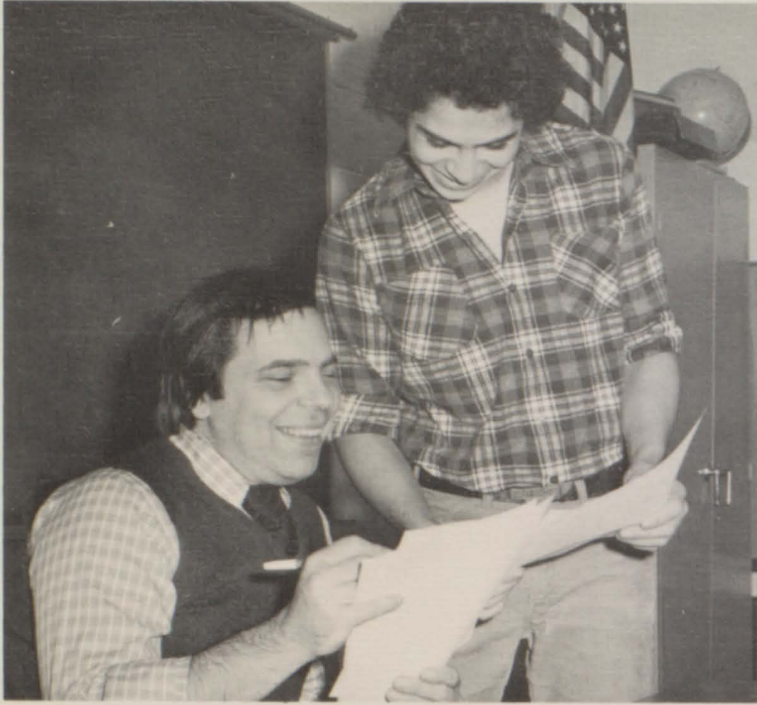

It happens every spring. No, not baseball . . . the Model U.N. Anyone who has not participated in this annual rite of spring probably never read past the first sentence.

All of our lives we practice different levels of peaceful co-existence. From that first promise to your mother not to punch your brother in his sleep, to sharing a room at band camp with three bunkmates who raise zoology specimens in their clothes - we learn to tolerate, practice restraint, compromise, and just plain get along. Why should the international relationships between countries be any different?

Students participating in the Model U.N. learn through representing other nations that a compromise is far from an out of date concept. If we are ever to be a World Community, we must first dismantle the walls of prejudice and ignorance around us. In time we may realize that U.N. not only stands for United Nations, but also for Understanding.

OUR VOCATIONAL PROGRAMS

"Hey, buddy, can you spare a dime?" You probably have heard that countless times while waiting in line to buy your lunch, but this year this phrase took on a different twist courtesy of our VICA Club. Coffee cans in search of coins were continually circulated by different VICA organizations as a means of gaining votes for their own special "uglies" in the first annual "Ugly Person Contest." Our uglies got some television exposure when Ch. 3 News covered their presentation. During the same ceremony Karyn Brayer was crowned VICA Queen. Once the votes were tabulated, all of the money contributed was donated to charity.

Vocational students not only deal with present problems such as helping a local charity, but they also deal in the future. These people are a large part of those workers who will make this country run. You'll find them caring for your children in a hospital or clinic. They will repair your television or that second car you will buy to run errands. They might fill the ranks of typists that deal with thousands of forms per day. They are a big part of our own future. Their success is our success.

Their Success is Our Success.

Academics

NHS, ACADEMIC CHALLENGE, NATIONAL MERIT FINALISTS

The students on these pages didn't just materialize into honors students. Their NHS gold cords are the end result of hundreds of hours of perseverance. (Hours that most of us waste or daydream away.)

Three scholars, in particular, made the most of their hours and had their dreams locked on the future. These three are our National Merit Finalists: John Pistolessi, Kai Schneider, and Rob Young. Each earned for himself the distinction of being among the top one percent of ALL the high school students in America in academic achievement.

This year's Academic Challenge team of Mark Pietrantone, Tom Sterle, Captain Gene Sterle, Kai Schneider, and Lori Weisenbach had to wait until March before finally getting before CH. 5's cameras. It is rumored that it took Don Webster that long to find someone who was willing to compete with us. (We had won three years in a row.)

It will take approximately 25 years to forget most of the names and faces in this yearbook, but the students on these pages will make the headlines of the future.

NHS OFFICERS: Gene Sterle, Al Kretz, Mark Pietrantone, and Paulette Capretta.

HONORS DAY — Putting in More Than Just Time

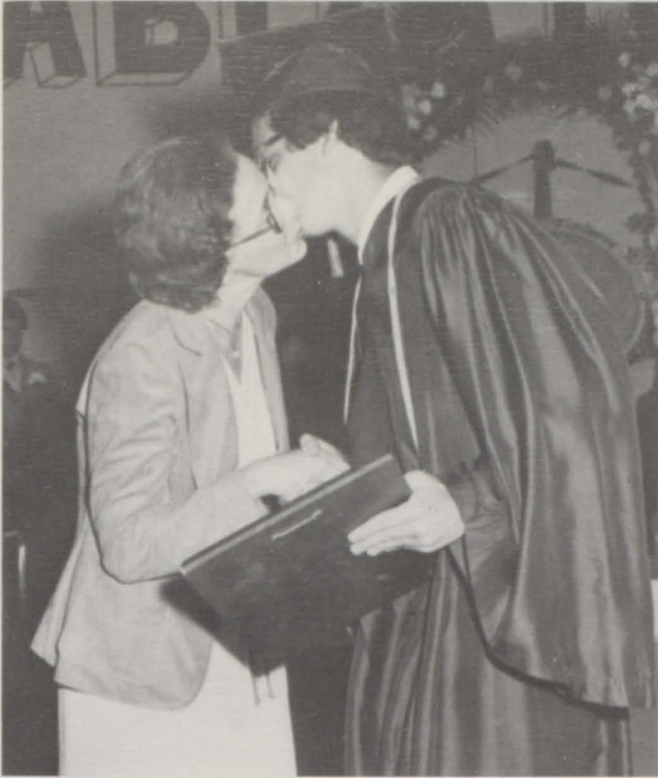

From the moment you entered this school as a freshman, your days were numbered. (724 to be exact). No sooner had you become a whiz at such things as singing more than the "Mayfield, oh, Mayfield" portion of our alma mater and learning how to get by Mr. Sabatino without a pass, when it was suddenly time to be measured for a cap and gown.

Honors Day arrived. We rarely get the opportunity to focus our attention on those students who have quietly and steadfastly ignored other peer pressures to become the best they could be. This was such a day. We shared in their pride of academic achievement.

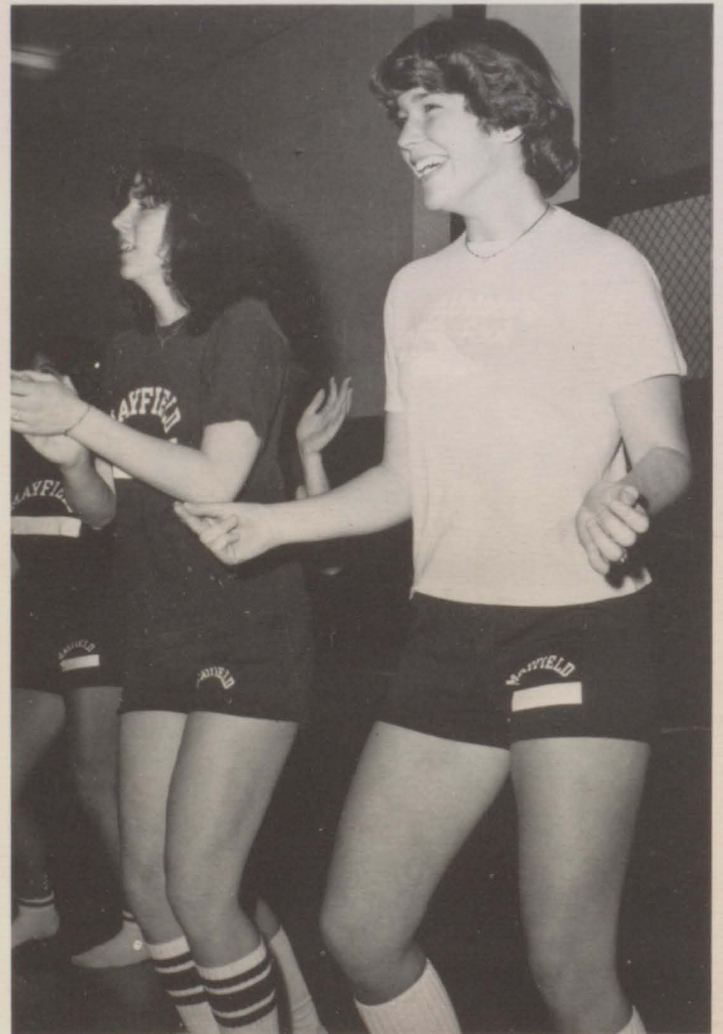

Commencement certainly was crossing another threshold as 50% of our 473 graduates of the Class of 1980 moved onto four year colleges, while another 15% entered 2 year colleges or trade schools. The remainder of our alumni decided not to prolong childhood any longer by immediately entering the job market. HONORS DAY COURT: (Left to Right) Karren Hiller, Donna Previte, Debbie DePaul, Sue Rauch, Nancy Norman, Queen Shari Mandell, Jana Pace, Ann Burchard, Queen Lisa Calamita, Trudy Rose, Lisa Hiscott, and Sue Salkeld. Escorts: Ken Gulaian, Dave Lajeunesse, Chuck O'Malley, Mike Sloe, Dennis Ange, Vince Ruggieri, Bob Marino, Bob Burcham, Steve Pastor, Tony Paglia, Scott Shields, and Dave Liederbach.

GRADUATION — On the Threshold of a Dream

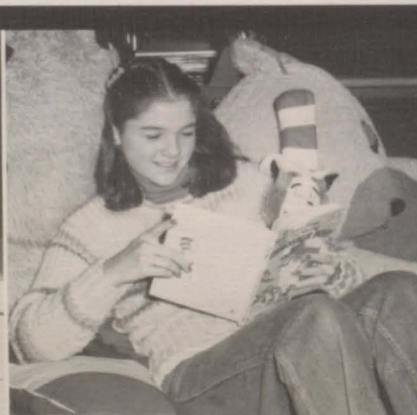

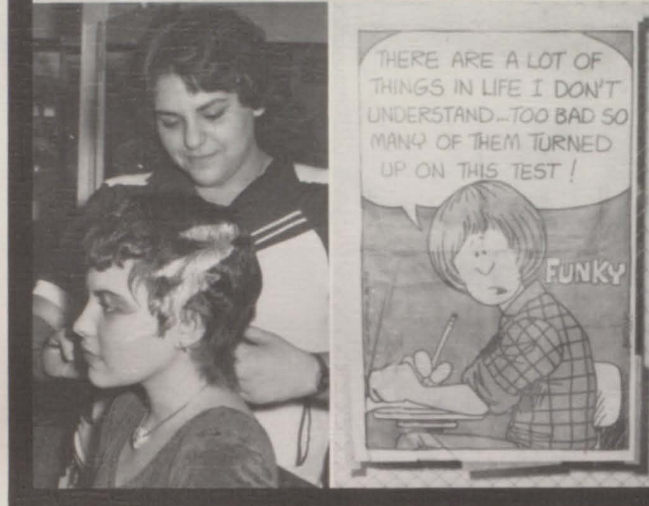

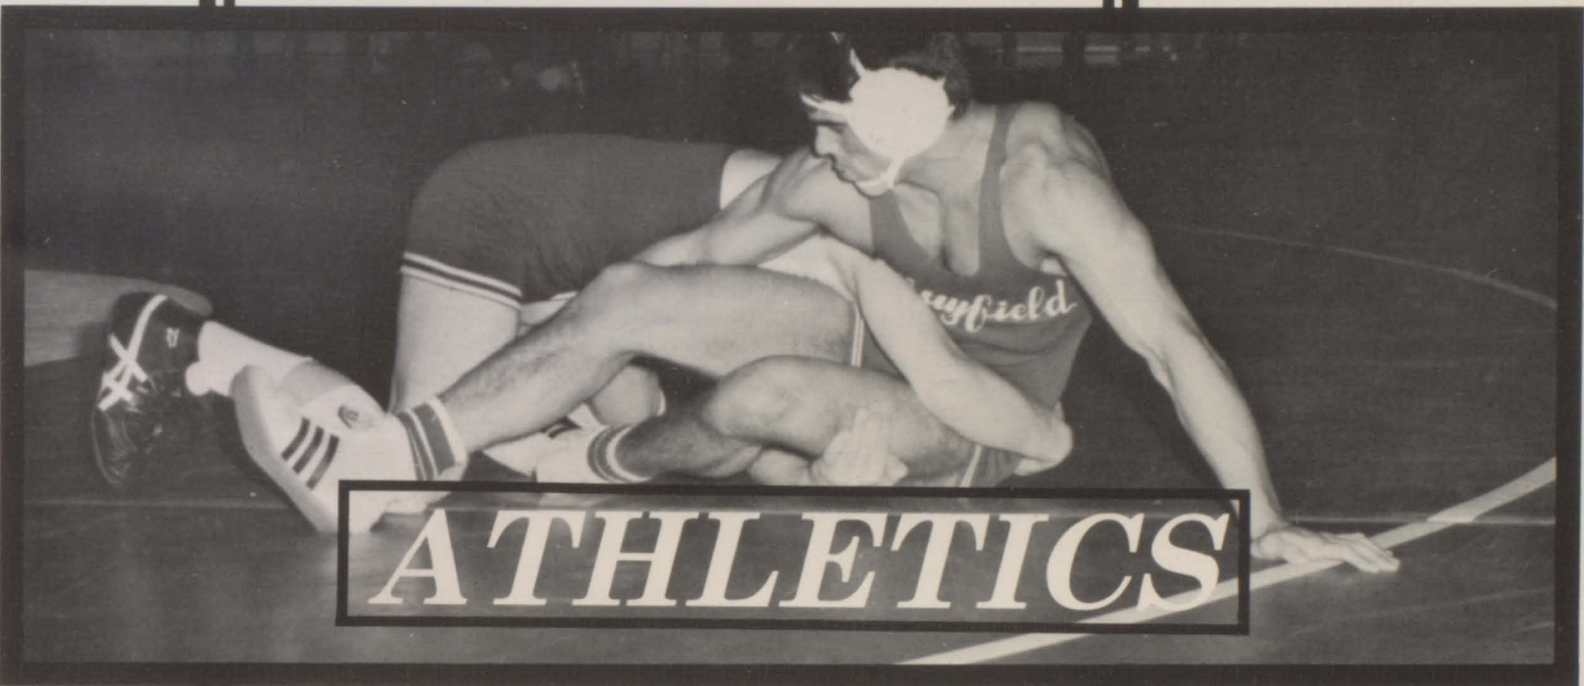

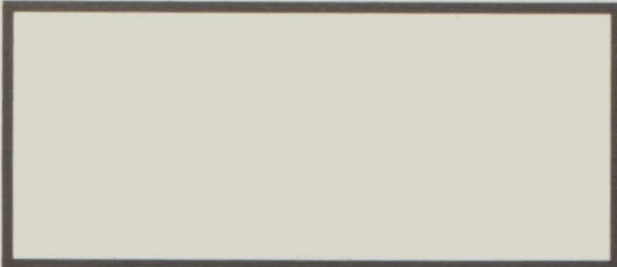

ACADEMICALLY SPEAKING . . .

REFLECTIONS ON A YEAR'S EFFORTS

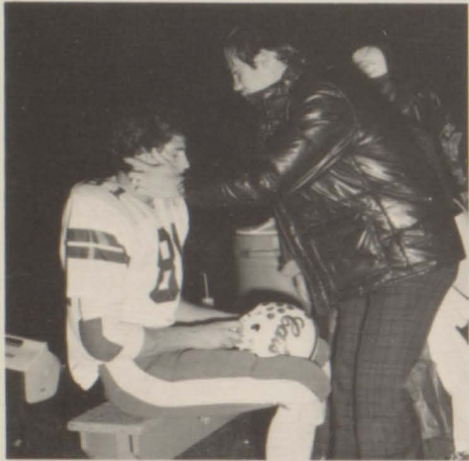

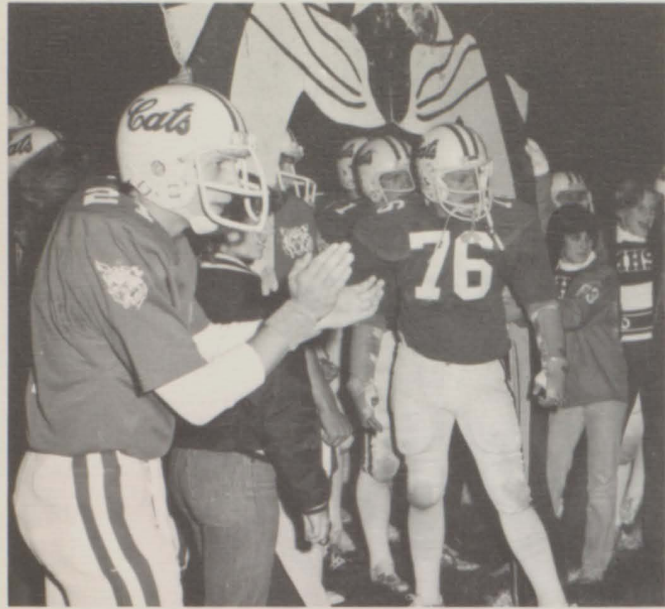

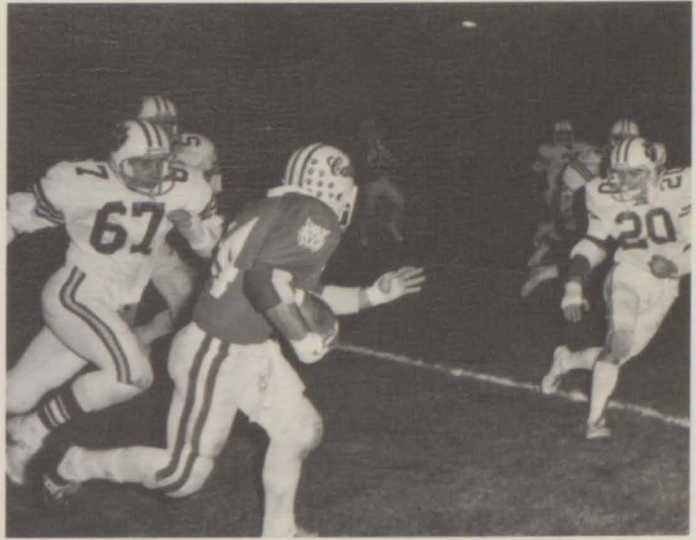

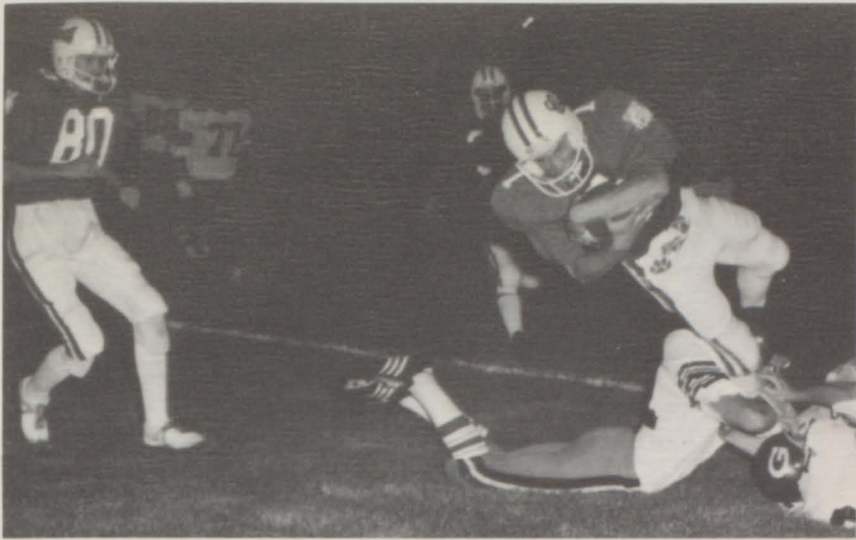

ATHLETICS

— Finishing with a Flare . . .

IF ONLY THIS SEASON WERE LONGER...

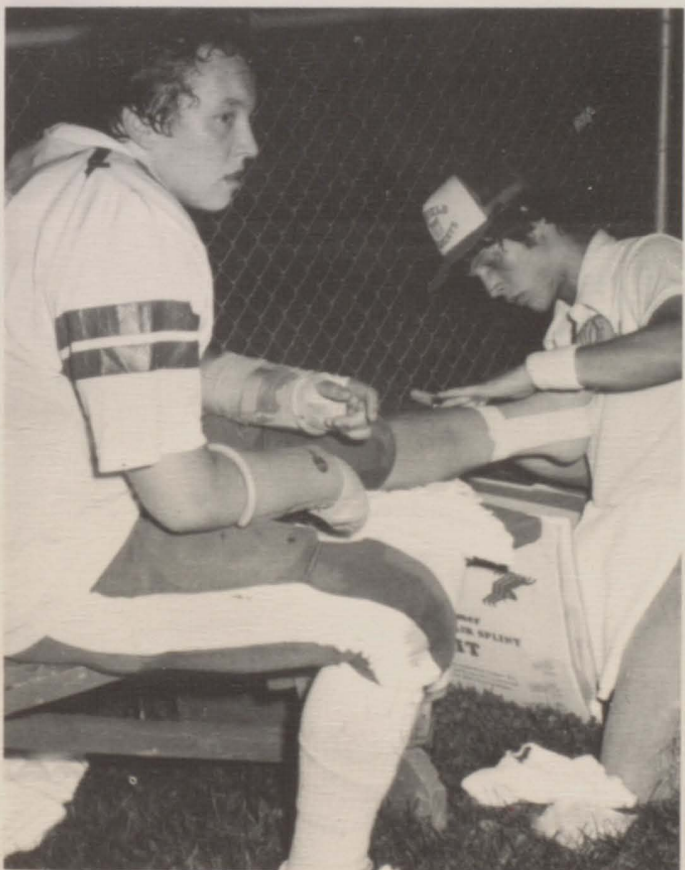

There was speculation at the beginning of the season that someone kept moving the goal-lines on our field . . . always farther away from our offense. Injuries plagued us throughout September. By the time Lanese, Razzante, and Gedeon rejoined the huddle; we were on the short end of a 1-5 season and on a bus to Mentor.

The ride back home was not to be another quiet one. Jim Marous and Mike Lanese ran over, around, under, and all over those "birds." Joe Burrello and a revamped "Mad Dog" defense stuffed those Cardinals for the first time in 10 years. That 17-6 upset was our REAL start. Eastlake North, Euclid, and Maple soon discovered the new CATS as we finished our second-half undefeated.

JV and FRESHMEN FOOTBALL

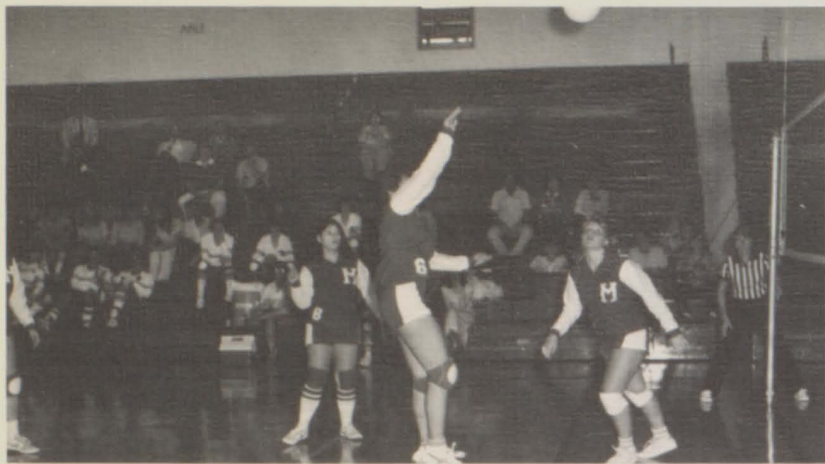

A RECIPE for future success: Gather together and blend the winning spirit of our 8-3 JV Cats. Add generous portions of a Sam Mercurio-led backfield. Mix Vigorously with returning lettermen and a few of those head-hunting freshmen. Once the mixture is set, include the DASHing of #4.

VOLLEYBALL — Ten Girls Named SPIKE!

Bump! Set! Spike! This is one of those "perfect" plays in the making. Led by rookie - Coach Brady ("A poor, poor, struggling school teacher"), the 1980 team posted a fine 12-9 record.

"Commitment to the cause" was the name of this game. And committed our girls were - as they mounted an all-out effort to get that ball. Those injuries fractured our hopes of going to state this year. (Especially untimely was Marianne Insana's collarbone break during sections.)

Though our goal was a bit clouded, the sun did shine through when Captain Shari Williamson and Lisa Wischmeyer were named to the ALL-GCC team. Our sights are already set on next season when all but Shari return.

CROSS COUNTRY —

Mastering the Miles

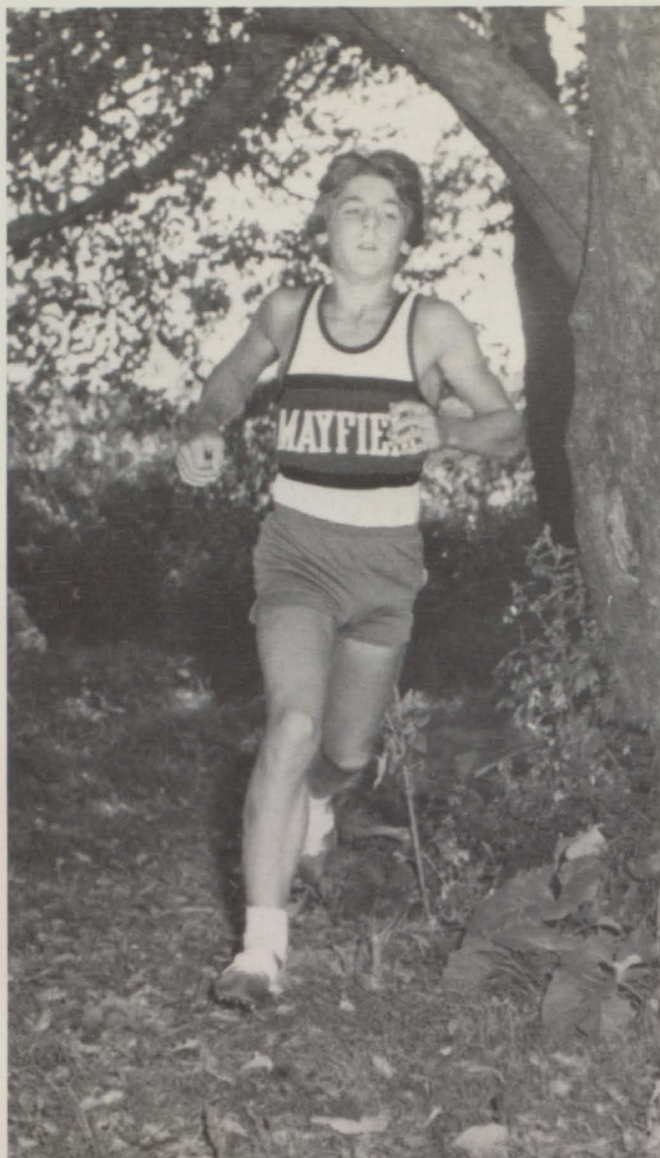

If you require cheerleaders, large crowds, and bright lights in order to put on a good performance, this competition is not for you. (The cheering section at a cross country meet usually arrives on a mo-ped.)

Our runners rely on very special people . . . THEMSELVES. Captain Mark Pietrantone and all-conference selections Jeff Sadar and Clark Turner put many hundreds of miles behind them in preparing for this year's 6-3 record.

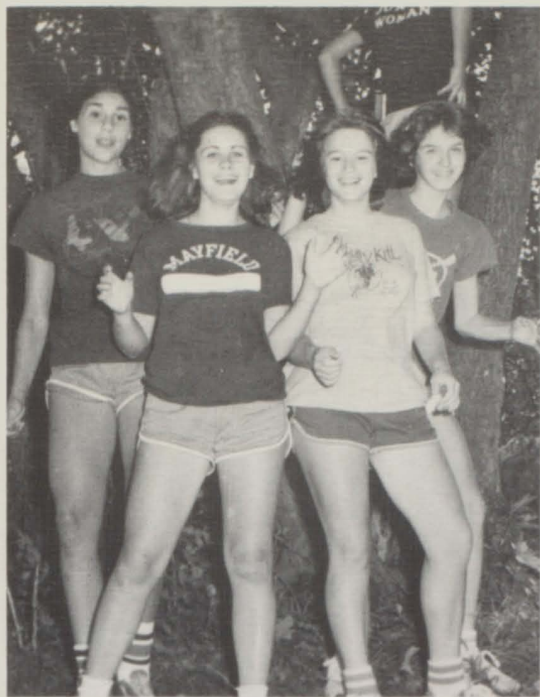

We won't be caught on our heels next year, as nine of this year's top ten runners will return. Keep an eye on the right hand side of the road whenever you're driving because these guys are already out pounding the berm. At the end of that road is a GCC crown.

VARSITY MEMBERS:

TOBY, TOBY, TOBY ... You're miles ahead.

Are there any future Tobys reading this copy? There can be - if you're willing to wear out your shoes running fifty miles per week, and forsake wearing any clothing but running shorts. It's not just a sport but a way of life. Toby's determination and desire to constantly improve earned for her a Mayfield school record of 15:37 and a trip to the state meet in Columbus. Coach Todt may give out Toby's uniform next fall, but he will not fill it with another like her.

GIRLS' VARSITY:

FRESHMEN SQUAD:

SOCCER — More Than Just Da-FEET

A simple glance in a mirror might give you a true reflection of yourself, but a look at the soccer team's 2-13-3 record will not reflect the true quality of this team. A team is characterized by a certain personality that is often remembered longer than any won-lost record. This squad led by Captains Gene Sterle, Tony Calabrese, and John Pistolessi set examples of dedication and determination that will not soon be matched. Our defense was the stingiest in several years, but outside Tony Calabrese's 15 goals — our offense was usually "OFF."

GIRLS' TENNIS — Loving It!

When a team finishes with a record of 4-11, there is a tendency to look for someone to find FAULT with. However, with this year's tennis team, the blame can only be placed on our inexperience. Co-Captains Leslie Prager and Mary Beth Gaeta were our only seniors; and as a result, we had to rely heavily on our new talent. Freshman Colleen Kretz led the way as our only District Qualifier, and will be our guiding star in the future. Add veterans Debi DeCarlo, Barb Oliver, Sue Mramor, and Barb Watson and we're sure to be serious GCC contenders next year.

TEAM MEMBERS: Row 1: Laura Adams, Colleen Kretz, Barb Watson, Sharon Mellon, Cathy Dowe. Row 2: Sue Mramor, Jackie Turk, Mary Beth Gaeta, Debi DeCarlo, Leslie Prager, Barb Oliver, and Coach Pfender.

GOLF — We Bagged THE Crown!

Who's been our team's DRIVING force over the last three years? Who prevents us from getting TEED off? Who is best at PUTTING a ROUND? Who's been our real diamond in the ROUGH? Beats me.

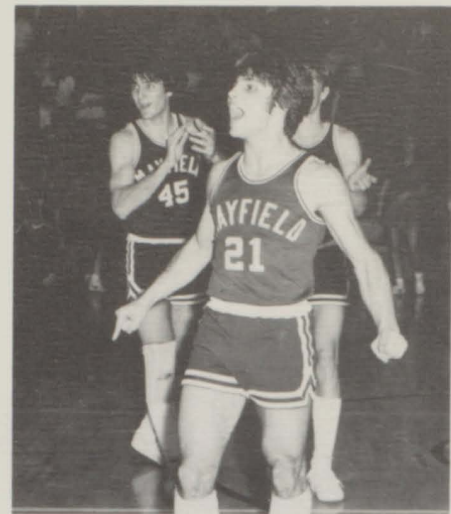

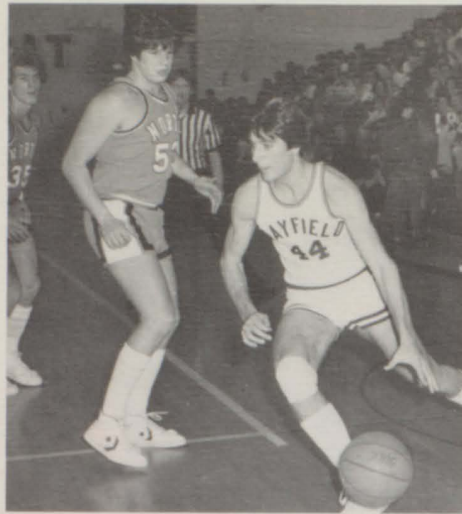

Seriously folks . . . all the above answers to the name, Tom "Watson" Connor. The next time we see Tom on a golf course, it will probably be on ABC's "Wide World of Sports."

All he did this year was lead this team to a share of the GCC crown. But even Tom could not have grabbed a share of the title without the birdies of both Bob Marko and Dave Watson.

BASKETBALL — Our Turn to Cut Down the Nets

No sooner was everyone just recovering from the Kardiak Kids' last minute loss to the Raiders, when another sports' team started grabbing headlines and spots on TV8. Our roundballers didn't take long to make believers out of sports fans as they passed, dribbled, and shot through the first half of the season with only one loss. The consistent and inspirational play of GCC Most-Valuable-Player John Keshcok (23.5 points per contest) and teammates John Blanc, John Maniaci, Tom Connor, and Joe Kerner brought a new phenomenon to the habitat of the cat . . . "The Packed House."

The crowds got larger and so did our winning record. We finished the season with a new school record of 18-2, but more importantly, we were crowned the undisputed champs of the GCC. The accomplishments of Coach Steadman's "steadies" did not go unnoticed as our team finished the regular season with: a fifth place ranking in the Greater-Cleveland area, a 15th place ranking in the entire state, and the "number one" seed in the sectional tournament.

If there ever was a championship won on a "team effort" . . . this was it. All 15 of these team members made us proud to say, "We are the Wildcats, the mighty, mighty Wildcats . . ."

UNDISPUTED GCC CHAMPS!

GIRLS' BASKETBALL — The Season Wasn't a Blanc

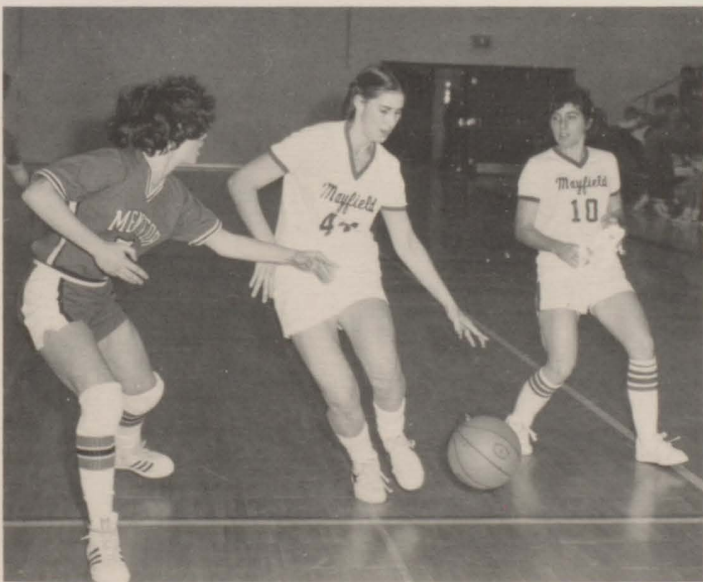

Did you know that when girls started playing basketball in high school they used only half of the court? (It was believed that girls couldn't run the full distance.) Although the rules have changed, our lady roundballers found themselves all too often playing with their backs to the opponent's hoop as they finished with a 4-15 season's record.

Experience is the key to winning in any high school sport, and had we only convinced Mr. and Mrs. Blanc to have had more girls years ago; we might have someone today to match Shelley's 17.5 point a game average.

In many cultures, those who became heroes and heroines were those who persisted where the obstacles seemed greatest. Knowing that ALL of our girls gave their ALL, irregardless of the outcome, makes them our heroines.

FUTURE SHOOTING-STARS

Two years ago who would have imagined that John Keshock would be the player he was as a senior. Look carefully at the JV and undefeated Freshmen squads. You have the opportunity to choose that hidden star of the future. Write your choice on the following line and compare it with the box scores in 1983.

WRESTLING — Two IF'S Short of a Crown

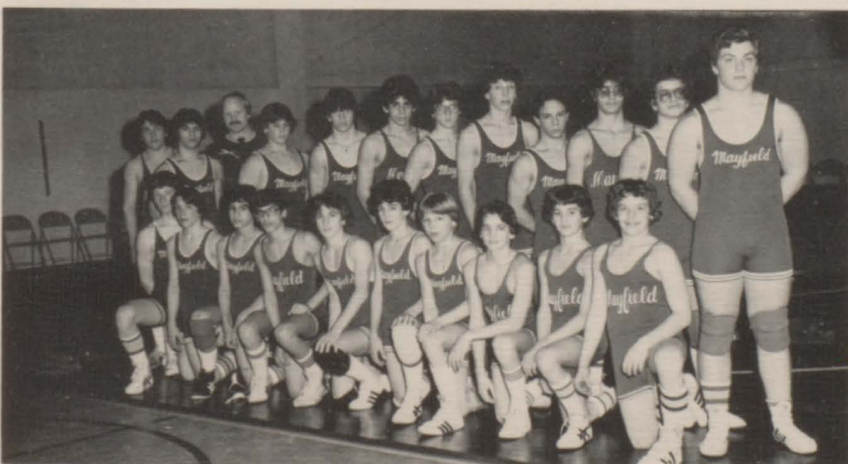

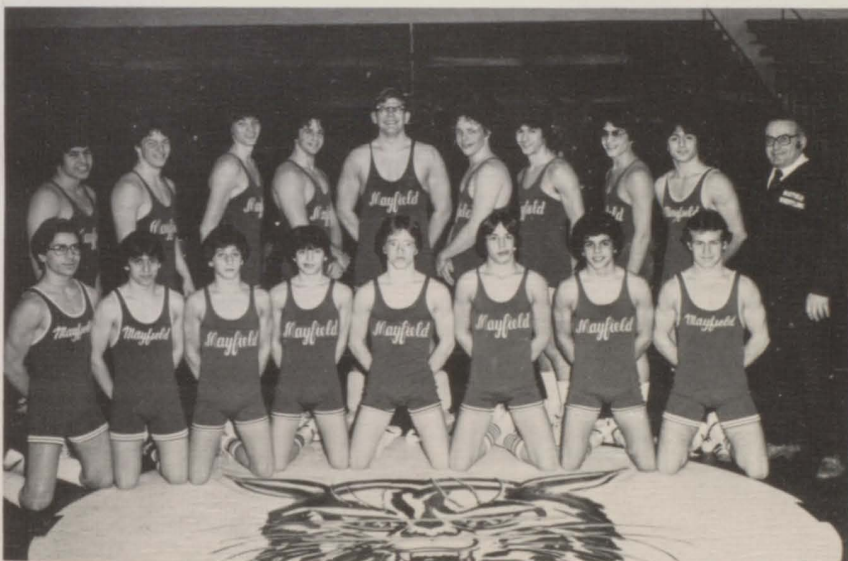

OUR GRAPPLERS — Coming of Age

This wrestling season was a time for "firsts." Our 9-4 grapplers had their best record in the last seven years. We pinned previously unbeatable Maple Heights. Bob Pierce had seven pins. Chuck Sabatino ran up an unbelievable score of 35-2 against an opponent from Riverside. Unfortunately, the most important FIRST escaped us. We're confident that IF we could get Brush and North on our mats again, we would have two winter sports teams with GCC crowns.

DREAMING OF COLUMBUS

To often we forget our overall sports program and concentrate just on the varsity. That's unfortunate. The competition at the 9th and 10th grade levels is just as intense as it is on the varsity. The junior grapplers proved that again and again as our JVs went 10-3 and Bill Kandrac pinned everyone he confronted. (Including some JVs.)

GYMNASTICS — No BARS to Future Success

There are a number of teams that begin and end their seasons in something close to obscurity. Our gymnastics team seldom operates outside the dreary confines of the 11-12 gym; and were it not for these two pages, most of these athletes would still be anonymous. Although our acrobats fashioned a respectable 6-4 record by vaulting past such highly touted teams as Brush, Orange, and Lake Catholic; they never seemed to generate the support other winter teams receive. (It's hard to believe considering the talent.)

One thing that could not be hidden were the continual outstanding performances of both Linda Eisenmann and Gayle Bolek as both qualified for Districts. (Gayle was the sectional runner-up for the All-Around title.) With such talent, the only news we will hear in the future about this team will be "good" news.

SWIMMING — No Longer Over Our Heads

Some may have accused past girls' swim teams of taking dives and going under for the count, but this year's 4-5 team has made those past claims history. Once team captains, Fay Reimer and Debbie Slagle, saw what a whale of a talent Debbie Goldstein was, they wouldn't let her out of the pool until she had broken two varsity records.

Although they practiced in a building where the walls contained more water than the pool, Coach Conover's girls never watered-down their efforts to win.

UP FROM THE DEPTHS

In finishing with a record of 5-8 you wouldn't think our boys' swim team caused much of a splash, but with the number of records that were broken you might have thought that Shamu joined this team.

A total of 12 freshmen and varsity records took the deep six as Jason Turcotte showed that not just the old timers like Guy Crowl and Jim Shipley can run wakes through their opponents. (Is it true that that Jason-kid has webbed fingers?)

With this much talent coming back next year, it will be more than just the pool that has depth.

BASEBALL — Less Hits than the NBC Peacock

What are those Indian fans complaining about? So they haven't had a pennant winner since 1954 . . . We haven't won a state baseball championship since Mr. Santora was the bat-boy in 1934. (He had hair then.)

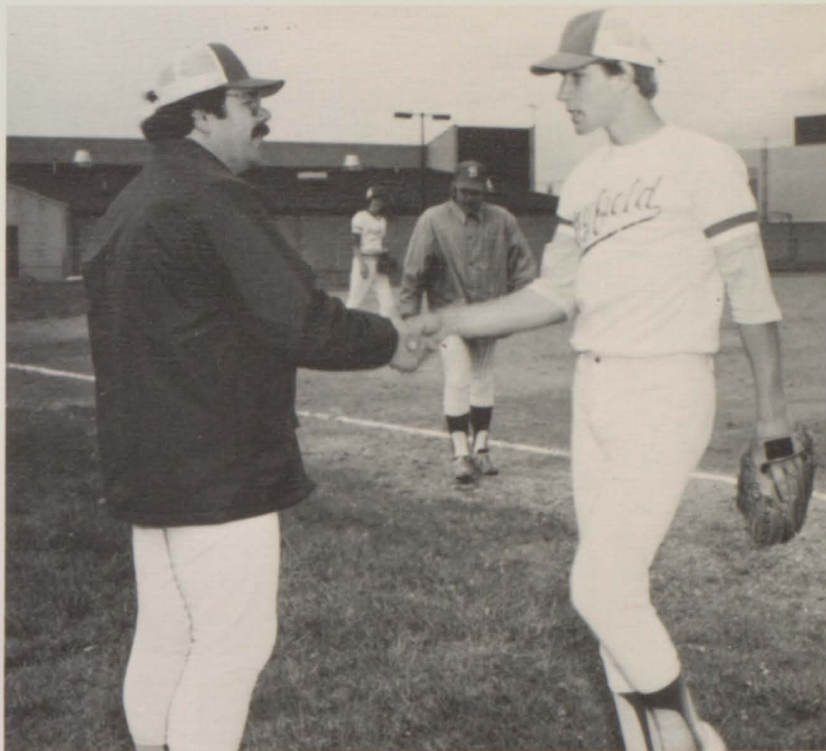

The lack of depth showed this year as our Wilcats scratched a 13-13 record into their diamond. We do tip our caps to Dave Shaft, Jim Benchek, and Tom Bielek who were chosen to the GCC All-Star team. We're expecting Tom to make it two in a row.

P.S. This coming season, all left-fielders will be required to be experienced bocci-ball players.

MINOR LEAGUES

There is good news from the farm, Mr. Santora. Joe "No-Hitter" Kerner and his 14-8 JV squad are on their way out of the "bushes." With hard-hitting Jeff Thomas and Joe Sweigert joining Bielek in 1981, we hope to have a major league improvement.

Softball — Someone Threw Us a Curve.

The conditions both on and off the field were perfect. We had the experience and leadership - Hiller and Super-K Kest were finally seniors. Our bats were held in eagerness over the plate . . . the pitch . . . a mighty swing . . . MISS . . . strike three! Boy (oops!) Girl, what a disappointing season. Jodi won her 12th varsity letter (a remarkable feat), but it didn't help us through a 6-10 season.

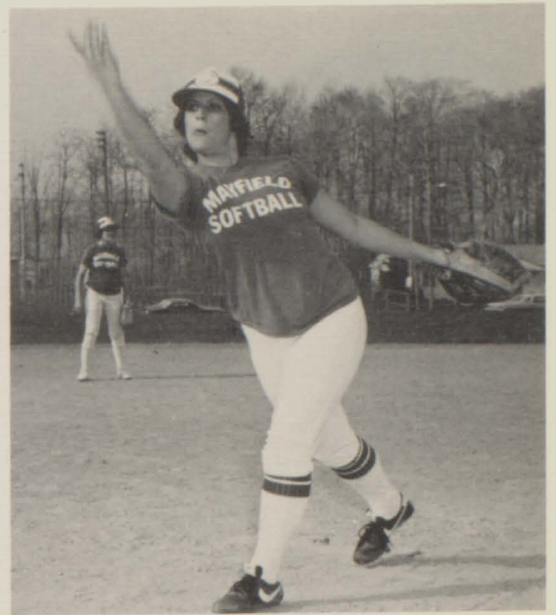

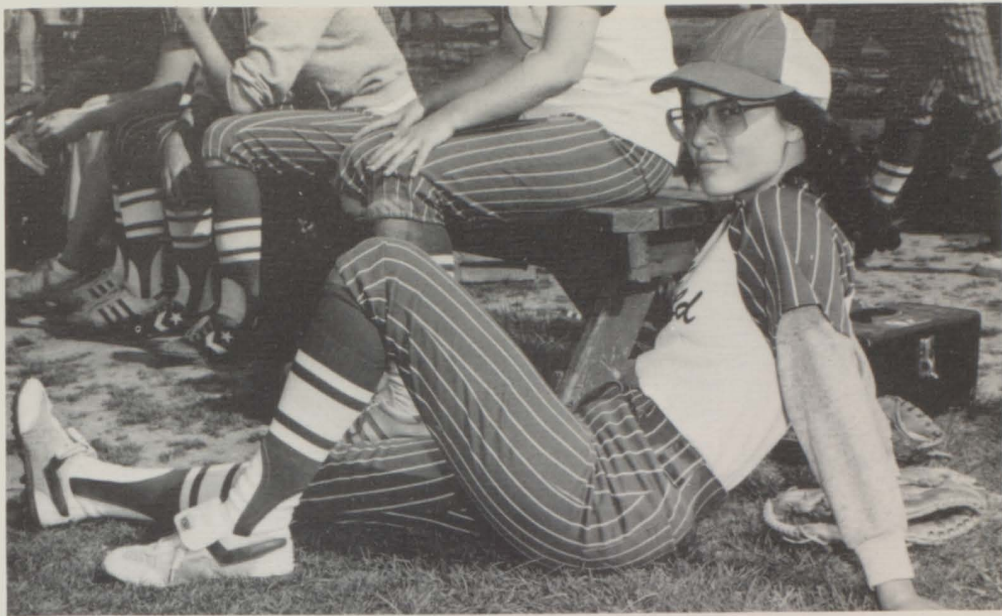

VARSITY:

Row 1: Kathy Grygo, Karen Ferguson, Angie Morelli, Jodi Kest, Karen Hiller, Carolyn Fini, Aileen Panzer. Row 2: Marianne Insana, Jackie Turk, Laura Maniglia, Tina Monastero, Michelle Blanc, Lisa Wischmeyer, Janet Synk, Jeanette Gentile, Deanna Leonti.

JV SQUAD:

TRACK — Can't Use the Track as an Excuse Any Longer ...

Ah, Spring . . . feel that warm breeze . . . break out the frizbees and Coppertone. It's that time of year when a boy's or girl's fancy turns to 12 pound shots, hurdles, and long - jump pits. What better way to spend a sunny afternoon than running in circles sweating off all those Big Macs.

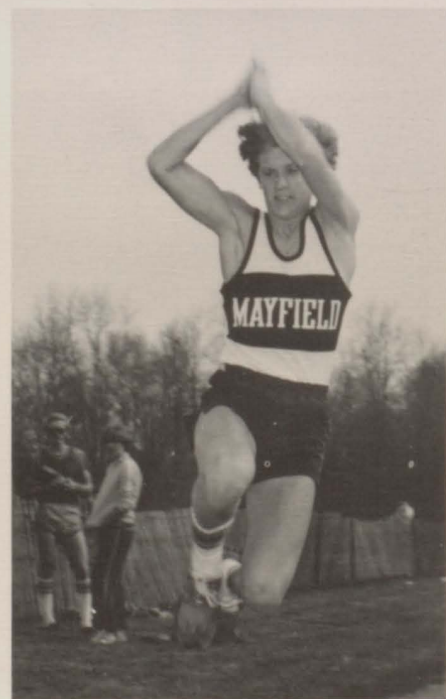

One thing that Coach Safran could not get his team to hurdle was the rash of injuries to key harriers. Had it not been for the outstanding performances of John Long and Chris Manfroni, we would have had to look to the Lady Wildkittens for all of our successes.

Coach Walker's girls not only crossed the finish line with their first winning season (5-4), but Mercury Maura Kilbane and two relay teams took their spikes to the district meet.

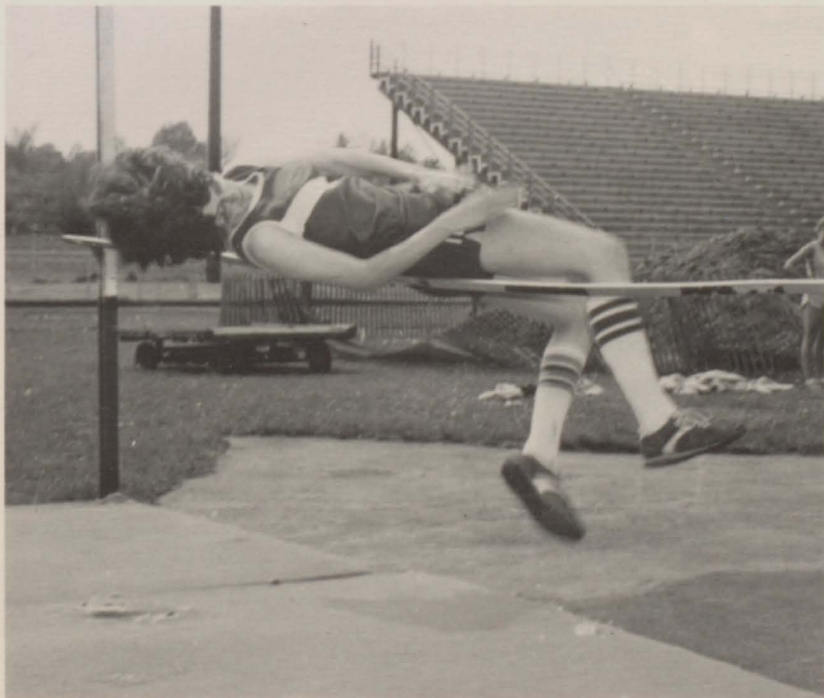

Both boys' and girls' squads will have much more depth this season, and all look to more record breaking performances on our new track.

P.S. Maura, our beautiful Irish lass, must have developed all that speed running away from males for 16 years.

No Excuses Needed for This Group.

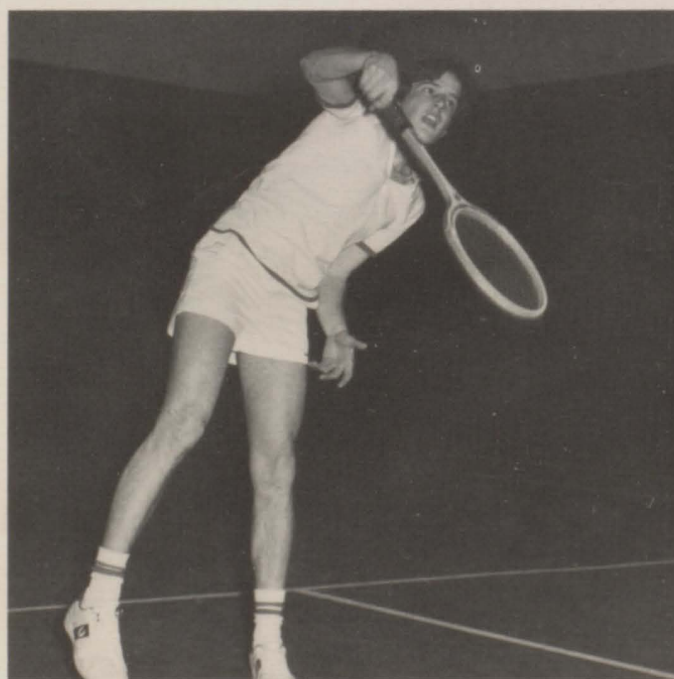

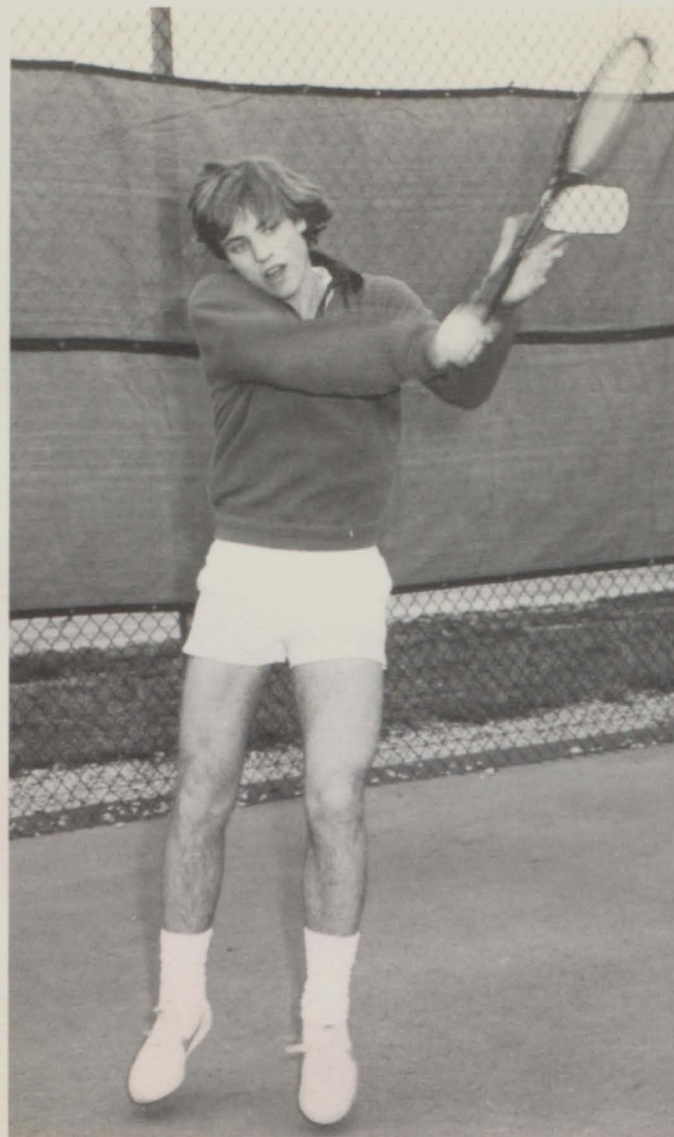

Originally there was a Toby Latnik picture here - but we desperately needed the space for team names. Fans of Ms. Latnik can turn to page 89 for more on your heroine. (Toby, the picture wasn't all that flattering anyway.)

GIRLS' VARSITY:

BOYS' TENNIS — Courting Number 6

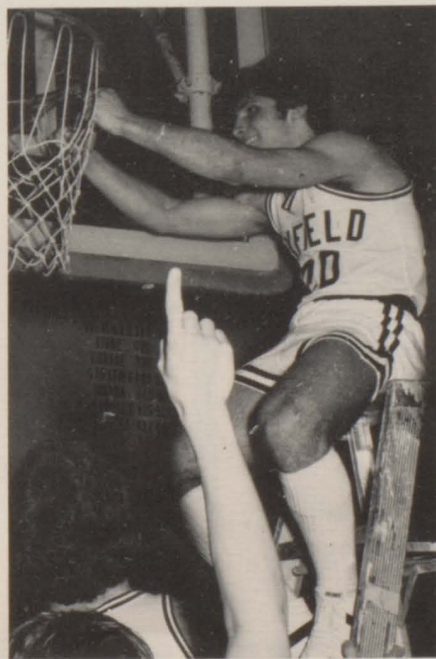

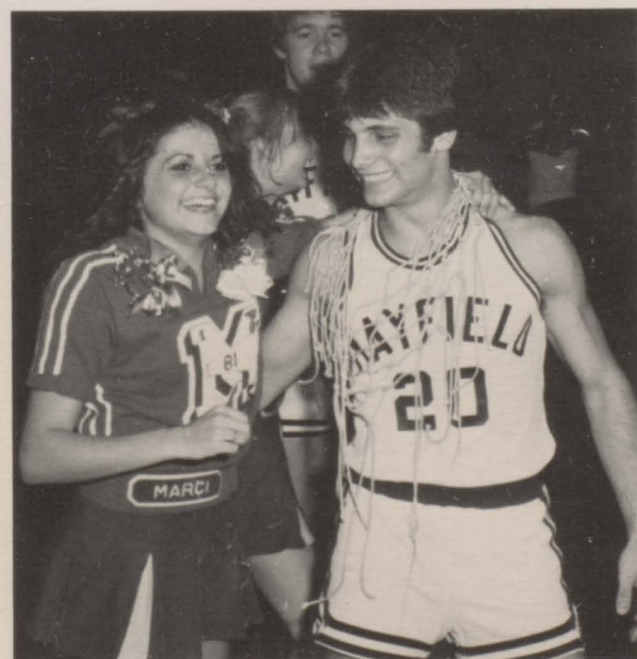

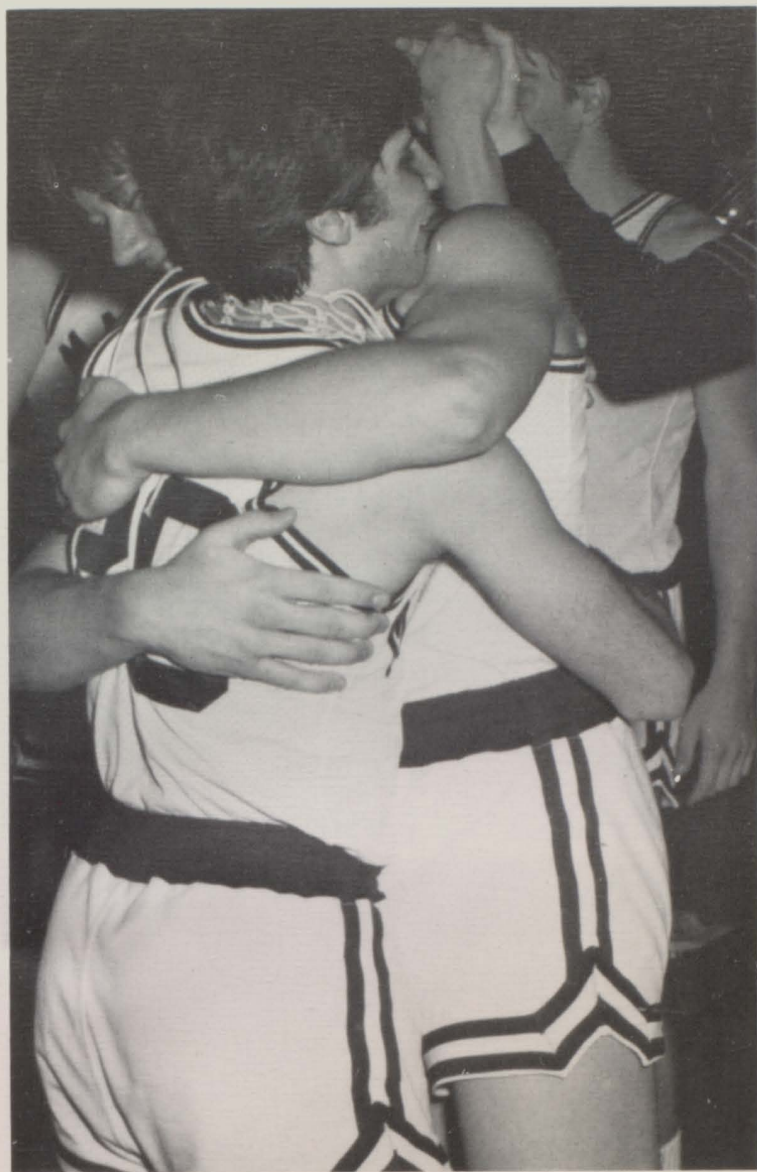

A sports' dynasty at Mayfield has usually been as rare as dinosaurs' bones, unless of course, you're referring to our ongoing GCC Championships in tennis. Our teams have strung together 29 consecutive conference victories and 35 straight dual wins in netting their five consecutive crowns.

Thank goodness we are in a conference. Our GCC opponents have to face us whether they like it or not. And the word is that their nets are shaking over the thought of facing our new stars: Gary Colister, Al Kretz, Rob Previte, Dave Watson, and Jeff Mueller. (Maybe that's why our "fantastic five" is so relaxed in the above candid. They're already counting #6.)

ONE MORE TIME — Savoring That Feeling

Moments to savor: The warmth of your house after walking home through a snowfall; the quiet presence of a close friend; and that first kiss.

Wait! We forgot the most important moment . . . our GCC Championship. That final victory over Brush on February 20th gave all of us a special feeling of belonging as each of us came to a realization that that team "down there" was ours.

How many of us stayed in that gym long after the game had ended just because that feeling was too good for us to let go.

PROFILING OUR PEOPLE

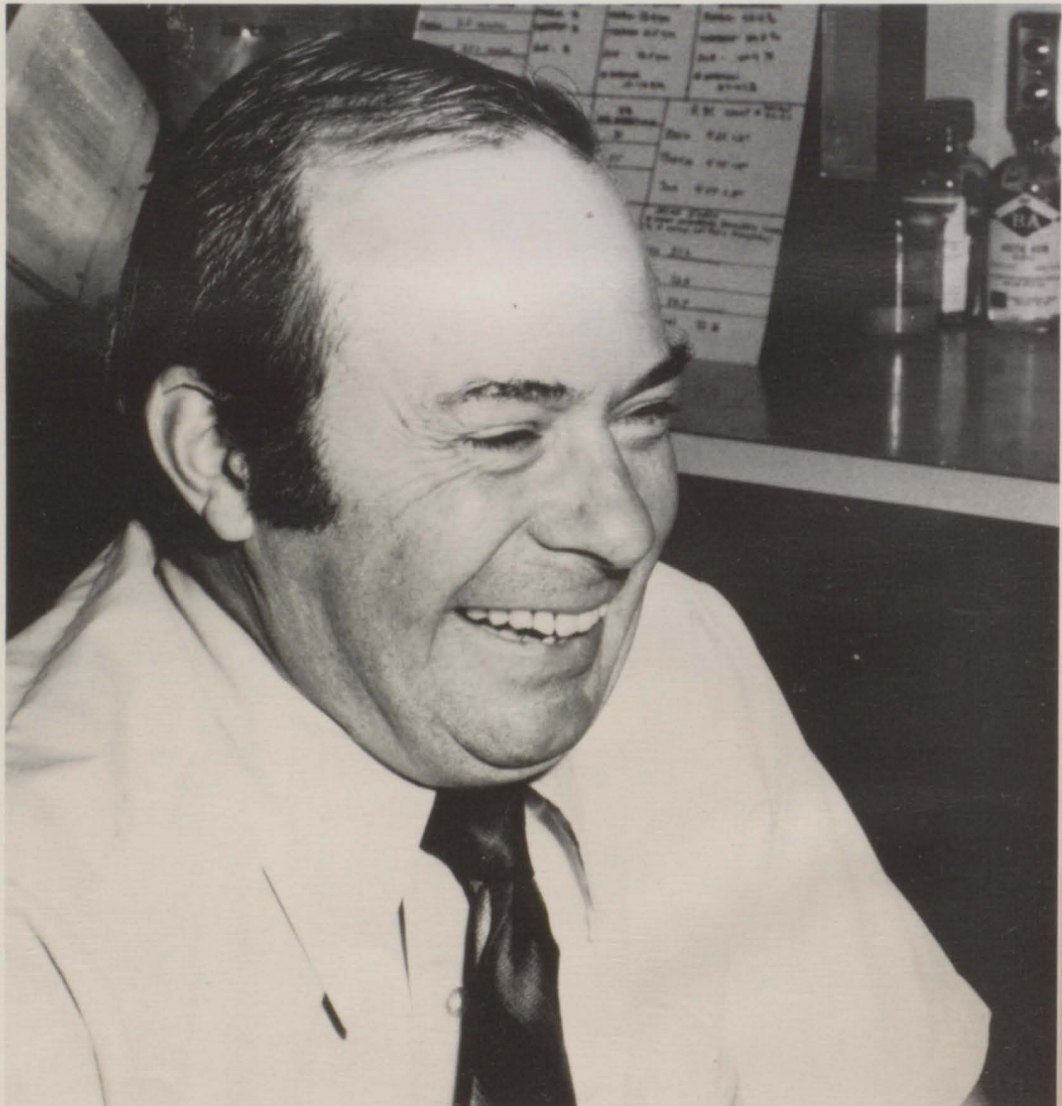

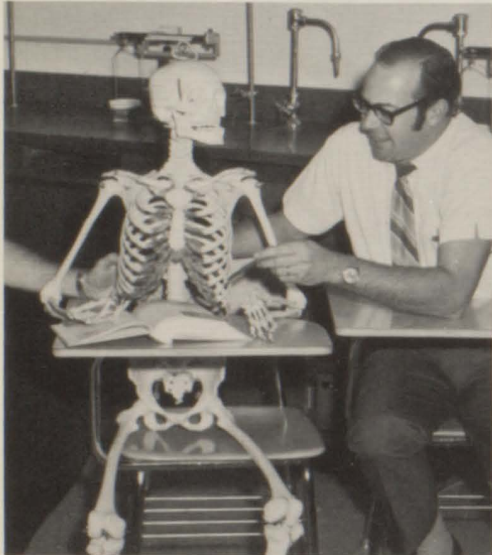

DEDICATION — MR. RICHARD JOHNSON

That wide smile that you see radiating from Mr Johnson's face is the real specimen. You may have missed it while taking notes during one of Mr. Johnson's lectures, or studying for that "impossible to pass" test, or while you were wincing through the dissection of one of those smelly cats. But those smiles are never far away. (They're infectious)

Of course, Mr. Johnson has never seen his job as that of an entertainer, but rather that of an educator whose job it was to push you to the extents he knew you could attain. There has not been one cell, tissue, or spore that he didn't think you could remember if you really applied yourself. Mr. Johnson always emphasized mastering "the parts in order to understand the whole."

Had we been able to witness the many and varied segments of Mr. Johnson's career over the last twenty-plus years, we might better appreciate his total involvement in our school system.

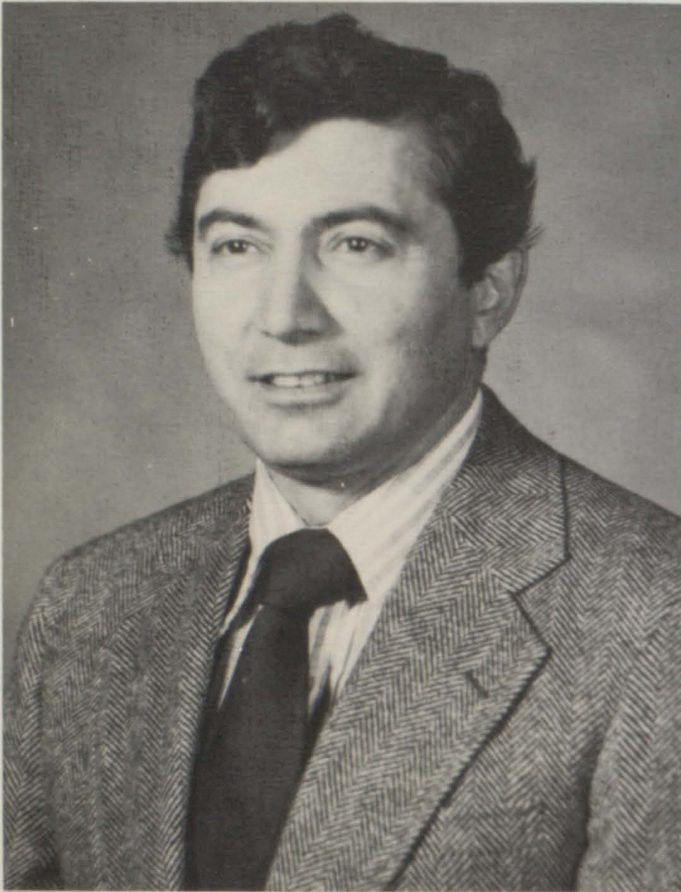

Mr. Richard Johnson, we, your students and friends, proudly dedicate this 1981 edition of our MAYFIELDER to you for the lasting impressions you've left with us.

THE LAST LAUGH — We Hope

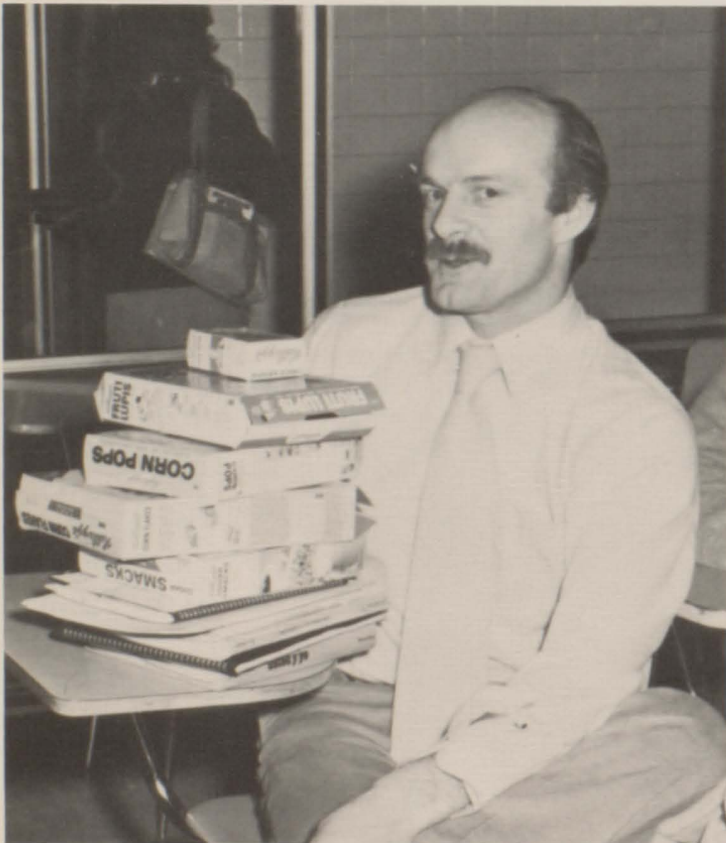

Receptionist from Three-Mile Island

No points for falling asleep on the mat.

John, are you trying to sneak into the girls' locker room again?

Eight more boxes and he gets his Batman decoder ring.

"I hate following horses in parades."

"And our Bocci ball courts are down there."

"Somebody spit on that ball again."

"So I added some points here and there."

"I'll never bring my dog to a dance again."

"I can't catch it; it keeps moving."

EVER CHANGING, EVER GROWING

We entered full of resolve and ambition. We eagerly accepted and confronted the challenge which had been set before us. Our earnest was soon lessened; however, as we began to encounter difficulties. But we learned to adapt. Some of the obstacles we crashed through, others we climbed over, and still others we avoided altogether. The result has been maturity. As we reached the top of each mountain, we discovered that our capabilities had increased - along with our expectations. We learned that true improvement is found within ourselves.
